2 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're now
3 going on the record. Today is Friday, 4 June 4, 2021, and the time is 5 approximately 1:36. This is the 6 remote video deposition of Ana Liss in 7 the matter of Independent
8 Investigation under New York State
9 Executive Law Section 63(8).

10 My name is Rocco Mercurio and 11 the court reporter is Theresa Tramondo
12 and we are from Veritext.

13 Will counsel please introduce 14 yourselves and who you represent for 15 the record.

16 MS. MAINOO: Good afternoon.
17 Abena Mainoo from the Law firm of 18 Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton, but 19 acting as a Special Duty to the First 20 Deputy Attorney General for the 21 New York State Attorney General's 22 Office.

23 MS. PARK: Jennifer Kennedy Park
24 from the law firm of Cleary Gottlieb
25 Steen Hamilton, and I'm also a Special

2 Deputy to the first Deputy Attorney
3 General of the New York State Attorney
4 General's Office.

5 MS. TAI: And I'm Avion Tai also
6 from the law firm of Cleary Gottlieb
7 Steen Hamilton I've been designated as 8 Special Assistant to First Deputy 9 Attorney General.

10 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: The court
11 reporter will now swear in the witness 12 and we can now proceed.

13 MS. MAINOO: All parties agree
14 that the court reporter can 15 swear/affirm the witness in virtually 16 via Zoom as if the witness was in the 17 same room as the court reporter.
18 Unless there are any objections by any 19 party, say it's so stipulated.

20 So stipulated.

21 A N A L I S S, called as a witness, 22 having been duly sworn via Zoom by a 23 Notary Public, was examined and testified 24 as follows:

2 MS. MAINOO:

3 Q. Good afternoon after, Ms. Liss.
4 Thank you for meeting with us today.

5 Before I start asking questions,
6 I'm going to give you some background
7 information and go over some ground rules.

8 The New York State Attorney
9 General has appointed the law firms Cleary
10 Gottlieb Steen Hamilton and Vladeck Raskin &
11 Clark to conduct an independent
12 investigation under New York Executive Law 13 Section 63(8) into allegations of sexual 14 harassment brought against Governor Andrew 15 Cuomo, as well as the surrounding 16 circumstances.

17 You are here today pursuant a 18 subpoena issued in connection with this 19 investigation.

20 I will note at the outset that 21 today's proceeding is being video recorded.
22 You are under oath. That means you must 23 testify fully and truthfully just as if you 24 were in a court of law sitting before a 25 judge and jury. Your testimony is subject

1 Confidential

2 to penalty of perjury. If you would like to 3 make any brief sworn statement, we would ask 4 that you do so at the end of your 5 examination today.

6 Although this is a civil 7 investigation, the New York Attorney
8 General's Office also has criminal 9 enforcement powers. You have the right to 10 refuse to answer a question if answering the 11 question would incriminate you, but any 12 failure to answer can be used against you in 13 a court of law in a civil noncriminal
14 proceeding.

15 Asserting your Fifth Amendment
16 privilege does have evidentiary
17 significance. If you choose to assert your 18 Fifth Amendment privilege, that fact could 19 be presented to a judge or a jury in a civil 20 proceeding, who will be free to draw a 21 conclusion from your assertion of that 22 privilege.

23 I understand that your attorney
24 is not attending your testimony, but you 25 have access to him today during your

1 Confidential

2 testimony and you can consult with your 3 attorney if you have any questions about the 4 attorney-client privilege.

5 As you can see, we have a court
6 reporter present with us in the virtual 7 room, and she is to take my questions and 8 your answers to create a transcript. So 9 that the reporter can create a clean record, 10 please provide a verbal response to each 11 question. So please do not shake or nod
12 your head or give responses like um-hum. Do 13 you understand?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. If you do not know the answer to 16 the question, please say you do not know.
17 Please allow me to finish my question before 18 you begin to answer, and I will try not to 19 speak over you so that the court reporter 20 can create a clean transcript, particularly 21 since we're not all in the same room.

22 You will not be permitted to 23 review a transcript of your testimony. If 24 at any time today you want to clarify an 25 answer you have given, please let me know.

1 Confidential

2 If you do not understand a question, please 3 let me know and I will try to ask the 4 question in a different way.

5 I will be asking about names and 6 dates and other specific information. Even 7 if you don't remember a specific name or 8 date, I would ask that you give me your best 9 approximate answer while indicating that 10 your answer may not be exact.

11 If you need a break at any 12 point, please let me know, but if there is a 13 question pending, please answer the question
14 first and then we can take a break. Okay?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Please confirm that you are 17 alone.

18 A. Yes, I am alone.

19 Q. Please confirm that you're not 20 using any technology to create a recording 21 of the proceeding on your end including 22 using screen capturing tools.

23 A. Yes, I can confirm I'm not 24 recording this using any technology.

25 Q. Please confirm that you're not

1 Confidential

2 allowing anyone else to listen in including 3 through any devices.

4 A. Yes, no one else is listening
5 in, I can confirm.

6 Q. And please confirm that you are 7 not and will not communicate in real-time or 8 during breaks with anyone else about the 9 substance of your testimony.

10 A. Yes, I can confirm I won't be 11 communicating that.

12 Q. Executive Law Section 63(8), a 13 provision under which this investigation is 14 being conducted, prohibits you as well as 15 your counsel from revealing anything about 16 what we ask or what you say during your 17 testimony to anyone. If anyone asks you to 18 disclose any such information, please let us 19 know, including any reason they provide for 20 seeking such information and we will discuss 21 with you whether any disclosure will be 22 permitted.

23 Please note that you are 24 protected from retaliation for participating 25 in today's testimony. We ask that you let

1 Confidential

2 us know if you are concerned about any 3 potential retaliation from the Executive 4 Chamber or anyone else.

5 Are you taking any medication or 6 drugs that might make it difficult for you
7 to understand my questions?

8 A. No, I am not.

9 Q. Have you had any alcohol today?

10 A. No, I have not.

11 Q. Is there any reason why you 12 would not be able to answer my questions 13 fully and truthfully?

14 A. No, there is no reason.

15 Q. Please state your name, date of 16 birth and current home and business address 17 for the record.

18 A. My name is Ana Liss, and my date
19 of birth is [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. My home
20 address is [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], 21 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], and my business
22 address is [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], 23 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED].

24 Q. Ms. Liss, have you ever given 25 testimony before?

1 Confidential

2 A. No, I have not.

3 Q. Other than conversations with 4 your attorney, did you do anything to 5 prepare to testify today?

6 A. No, I have not.

7 Q. Please open your electronic 8 exhibits and open Tab 2, which we will mark 9 as an exhibit.

10 (Exhibit 1, Testimony subpoena, 11 Tab 2, marked for identification, as 12 of this date.)

13 A. One moment. One second, it says 14 it sent me an e-mail -- oh, here it is. My 15 apologies.

16 Q. No worries.

17 A. I just have to activate my 18 account.

19 Q. If it's easier, you can also 20 look on the screen. We're sharing the 21 exhibit on the screen.

22 A. Okay. You said that it is Tab
23 number 2, correct?

24 Q. Correct.

25 A. All right. While I'm waiting

1 Confidential

2 for it to set up, I'll look on the Zoom
3 screen, if that's okay.

4 Q. Absolutely.

5 Do you recognize this document
6 as the testimony subpoena you received from 7 our office?

8 A. Yes, I did.

9 Q. Did you read the subpoena?

10 A. Yes, I did.

11 Q. And do you understand that your 12 testimony today is being taken pursuant to 13 this subpoena?

14 A. Yes, I understand.

15 Q. We can take the document off the 16 screen.

17 Ms. Liss, please take us through 18 your educational background starting with 19 college.

20 A. Yes, I attended Ithaca College,
21 the Park School of Communications, and I
22 received a bachelor of arts in journalism,
23 graduated in 2007. Subsequent to that, I 24 attended the University of Pennsylvania for 25 my master's in public administration. I

Confidential

2 graduated from that program in 2011. And I
3 also hold a certificate in graduate studies
4 from SUNY Empire State College in innovation
5 management and technology transfer, and I
6 earned that certificate in 2015.

7 Q. And please walk us through your 8 employment history following college.

9 A. Immediately following college, I
10 worked for a new station in Elmira, New York 11 WETM 18 News, the NBC affiliate, serving the 12 southern tier of New York State and the 13 northern tier of Pennsylvania, from 2007 to 14 2009.

15 Subsequent to that, I attended
16 graduate school. After graduate school, I 17 worked for the Center for Governmental 18 Research in Rochester, New York as a 19 research associate for a period of a little 20 less than a year.

21 And then I worked for Greater 22 Rochester Enterprise as a business
23 development associate for approximately two 24 years working in Economic Development, also 25 in Rochester.

1 Confidential

2 After that I received the Empire
3 State Fellowship to work in Albany. So from 4 2013 to 2015 I worked in Albany for the 5 Executive Chamber for Governor Cuomo in a 6 variety of different roles. Technically I 7 was an employee of New York State Homes and 8 Community Renewal; although, I sat in the 9 Executive Chamber and answered up through 10 the Economic Development chain of command
11 and ultimately to the director of state 12 operation.

13 After leaving Albany, I worked
14 for Cornell University's S.C. Johnson
15 Graduate School of Business as -- of 16 Management, excuse me, as a corporate 17 relationship manager, and then that was from 18 2000 -- that was in 2015.

19 And then I was recruited to go 20 back to Greater Rochester Enterprise, my 21 employer prior to getting the Fellowship, as 22 a managing director of business development.
23 I was there from 2015 to 2020.

24 And then in 2020, last year, I
25 joined the administration of Monroe County,

Confidential

New York, County Executive Adam Bello, as the director of planning and economic development, and in this role I am also the executive director of the Monroe County Industrial Development Agency and the Monroe County Industrial Development Corporation.

Q. So we're going to focus on your time at the Executive Chamber now. How did you come to work in the Executive Chamber starting in 2013?

A. I applied for the Empire State Fellowship in early 2013. It was the second year of the program, and per a news release, the administration was recruiting a second cohort. The Empire State Fellowship was posited as though it was modeled after the Presidential Management Fellowship Program, recruiting young professionals with graduate degrees to come work in state government service. I applied because I was interested in and passionate about upstate New York economics development and revitalization and wrote my essay in such a way as, you know, I was seeking employment to help serve the

2 Governor's administration in its efforts to 3 lift up the Regional Economical Development
4 Council initiative.

5 And I found out I got the 6 Fellowship in late spring, I believe, of 7 2013. And I moved to Albany in August of 8 2013 and began the Fellowship in September 9 of 2013. And before I found out that I was 10 going to be assigned to the Executive 11 Chamber on the second floor of the Capitol
12 in the Governor's Office, I attended a 13 week-long orientation program with the other 14 members of my Fellowship cohort at the 15 Rockefeller Institute of Government, part of 16 SUNY Albany, and I met the other fellows,
17 all of whom were assigned to different roles 18 in state government. Many were assigned to 19 various state agencies. A few of us were 20 assigned to the second floor.

21 On the final day and evening of 22 our orientation program, there was a 23 reception that we were invited to attend at 24 the Rockefeller Institute, and I was 25 introduced to [REDACTED] [REDACTED], who at the time was the assistant secretary for Economic Development, working for Governor Cuomo. I was informed that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was going to be my, quote/unquote, mentor or like my boss, and the next day I was to report to duty in my office in the Executive Chamber and [REDACTED] was going to begin giving me assignments.

Q. What work did you understand you would be doing as an Empire State Fellowship working out of the Executive Chamber?

A. I was told that I would be helping to develop and inform policy-making decisions. Given that I was assigned to the Economic Development portfolio, so to speak, it was my understanding that I was going to help staff and administer the work of the ten regional Economic Development Councils and help to guide the management of that initiative throughout my tenure there, and all of the fellows were told that the ultimate goal was for each of us to develop sufficient experience and connectivity such that we would become deputy secretaries.

1 Confidential

2 So I thought early on that I
3 might be tasked to be an assistant secretary 4 or a deputy secretary for Economic 5 Development or work in a senior leadership
6 position within an agency. So for me that 7 would have been Empire State Development 8 Corporation.

9 Q. When you found out that you had 10 been placed in the Executive Chamber, what 11 did you think about that?

12 A. At first I didn't know what it 13 meant really; however, I quickly learned in 14 conversation with the people that were 15 managing the Fellowship program at 16 Rockefeller that it was a prestigious place 17 to work and that I was very fortunate and 18 that it was exciting and it was going to be 19 high pressure and that I should be proud.
20 So I was excited and nervous.

21 Q. What was were you nervous about?

22 A. I was nervous that I
23 wasn't -- that I couldn't cut it, you know,
24 that I was nervous that I was just a young 25 person from upstate New York with no

Confidential

2 knowledge of how Albany really works and how 3 state government really functions,
4 especially from a political point of view,
5 and I thought that I would -- I thought that 6 I wasn't really cut out for it and that, you
7 know, they would get rid of me or something.
8 It was sort of an Imposter syndrome. But I 9 also felt like hat I could roll up my 10 sleeves and really try. I was committed to 11 leveling up, so to speak.

12 Q. What excited you about the 13 opportunity?

14 A. I was excited because the 15 Governor up to that point, you know, he had 16 established an agenda that was really 17 focused on upstate New York. He had rolled 18 out the Buffalo Billion and had promoted a 19 lot folks in the greater Rochester region in 20 his administration. Bob Duffy was our mayor 21 at one point and was serving at the time of 22 the Governor as Lieutenant Governor. Our 23 regional ESD office was pretty -- had a 24 pretty solid talent bench, and I thought,
25 wow, this is so exciting for Rochester and I get to serve this administration and also be a companion for my hometown, and I thought, you know, this is it, this is my ticket to the rest of my career in public service.

Just the Governor had developed a reputation being kind of a lion champion for upstate economic development, and up to that point under previous governors there were a lot of dark times and feelings of depression upstate through the great depression -- or the Great Recession and later on, and it felt like there were reasons to be hopeful, and I thought, wow, this is really amazing, I get to play a role in this larger effort to make things better.

Q. I don't know if you have been able to access the site yet, but we're going to pull up Tab 5 and we will mark that as an exhibit.

(Exhibit 2, announcement of 2013 to 2015 Class of Empire State Fellows, Tab 5, marked for identification, as of this date.)

A. Yes, I have it pulled up.

1 Confidential

2 Q. Tab 5 should be the announcement
3 of 2013 to 2015 Class of Empire State
4 Fellows. Do you see that?

5 A. Yes, I do.

6 Q. Do you recognize this document?

7 A. Yes, I do.

8 Q. Page 1, I'm going to put it on 9 screen. Page 1 says that in the third
10 paragraph "The Governor appointed each 11 Empire fellow to a position that matches
12 their skills with the needs of state
13 government," and then turning to page 3 it 14 includes a profile for you, it refers to 15 your background in Economic Development, 16 fiscal policy, public budgeting, local 17 government ethics and journalism?

18 A. Uh-hum.

19 Q. Do you remember the first time
20 you saw that profile?

21 A. Yeah, I don't know exactly when 22 it was. It was not long after the 23 orientation. I think it was towards the end 24 of orientation week that it was released and 25 publicized, and I remember feeling proud and

1 Confidential

2 I shared it with my friends and family.

3 Q. We can take that off the screen.

4 What positions did you hold when 5 you were at the Executive Chamber?

6 A. It's -- it was confusing, and 7 particularly for somebody like me, who 8 needed structure. There lacked a great deal 9 of structure. So when I started out, I was 10 working for [REDACTED] [REDACTED], and I was seated 11 in a -- the second floor. It was sort of a 12 balcony atrium area in the Lieutenant
13 Governor's Office, that was dusty and off
14 the beaten path, and I sat up there at a 15 really old computer workstation next to a 16 young woman named [REDACTED] [REDACTED], [REDACTED] [REDACTED] 17 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] on the Regional Economic 18 Development Councils.

19 And at first I was given random
20 one-off assignments. I was asked to collect 21 mailing addresses and contact information 22 for as many commercial contractors in the 23 State of New York as possible for an event
24 that the Governor was hosting that had to do 25 with START-UP New York, I believe.

1 Confidential

2 I was asked to put -- the 3 Governor had gotten it into his head at one
4 point per [REDACTED] that he wanted to bring 5 back Formula 1 racing to New York State, and 6 I was asked to research the feasibility of 7 that and put a memo together.

8 Then I was asked to do sort of 9 random things having to do with the Regional 10 Council, so putting meeting materials
11 together, attending with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and 12 with [REDACTED] and other staff members,
13 attending meetings of the Regional Councils
14 in other part of the state, which was funny.
15 You know, I got to do a little bit of 16 traveling in New York.

17 And then a couple of months into 18 it, I was asked to leverage my journalism
19 background, to put some video reels together 20 for the upcoming Regional Economic 21 Development Council awards, which was 22 happening in, I think, November of that 23 year. And I did a lot of work on that with 24 Empire State Development with their 25 multimedia crew, and I did some traveling

1 Confidential

2 and interviewed some people.

3 And I found out per [REDACTED]
4 after I had spent several weeks putting 5 those together with relatively little 6 supervision and relatively little feedback,
7 that the Governor had seen one of the videos
8 and hated it and wanted us to start over.
9 And this was the night before -- the day
10 before the award, so I had to work like kind 11 of through the night in the multimedia 12 studio underneath -- in the concourse of the 13 State Capitol with the communications team
14 to put everything together to repackage
15 everything so that the Governor would like 16 it.

17 And he assigned his Director of 18 State Operations at the time, Howard Glaser, 19 to supervise me. I don't know if that -- if 20 it was him that assigned it or what, but 21 Howard Glaser was put there down there with 22 me, and at the time I thought, wow, this is 23 so amazing because up until that point I was 24 sort of in this far-gone section of the 25 Executive Chamber where it was just me and a

1 Confidential

2 couple of people in the Lieutenant
3 Governor's Office. I really never saw 4 anyone that had any name recognition, and 5 all of a sudden I was sitting at a table
6 with Howard Glaser, whose name was mentioned 7 all the time.

8 Q. What was Howard Glaser's
9 position?

10 A. He was the Director of State
11 Operations at the time.

12 And notably he was also [REDACTED]
13 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] who was one of the other 14 accusers later on.

15 But anyhow, Howard helped work
16 with me and the other -- and the multimedia
17 crew. There's like videographers, audio 18 editors. And we put everything -- we 19 repackaged the videos so that the Governor 20 liked them. We made them like sexier and 21 more exciting, kind of like movie trailers 22 almost.

23 And then the next day I remember
24 I noticed that Howard Glaser started 25 following me on Twitter. Then I was

1 Confidential

2 notified later on by a gentleman by the name
3 of [REDACTED], who is now a lobbyist, but 4 [REDACTED] was [REDACTED],
5 I was notified that Howard wanted me to go 6 over and work in his office.

7 And so then I moved my stuff
8 over to Howard's office, and his office was 9 right next to the Governor's Office, so when 10 the Governor was in Albany, the Governor 11 would come through, and that's when I would 12 see him. It was a completely different 13 environment and different -- it was a lot 14 more pressure, a lot more stress.

15 And then it got increasingly 16 unclear like what I was doing in the 17 Governor's Office because [REDACTED] was 18 running Economic Development, and I really 19 like doing the work, you know, staffing the 20 Regional Councils, and then all of a sudden 21 I was kind -- kind of sort of taken off of 22 that for the most part and like sat in 23 Howard's office and did random assignments
24 for Howard, while also on the fringes doing 25 random assignments for [REDACTED] So I never quite understood what I was doing there. It was confusing, and I ultimately -- I tried to find my way to a spot that felt more productive and felt like it was more structured, but, you know, ultimately what made the most sense at the end of my Fellowship was just to get out, and so that's why I got out.

Q. And when you sat at your original location in the Lieutenant Governor's Office, where was that in relation to the Governor's Office?

A. It was -- so the second floor of the Governor's Office is like a big square, and on one side of the square is the Hall of Governors and that's where the Governor's Office is and all of the really important deputy secretaries, and on the other side it's like the Hall of New York, where the Lieutenant Governor's Office is and some like less important assistant secretaries.

So I was in the Hall of New York, pretty far removed, and also furthermore I was up on the second floor in one of the offices, so even further removed. And nobody from -- like I heard names like Howard Glaser and Larry Schwartz and Melissa DeRosa and Stephanie Benton. I heard the names -- oh, and Joe Percoco, and these are all names -- besides the Governor, I didn't know who any of these people were before I started in the Executive Chamber. I heard the names tossed around all the time and began to learn who are the important people and they were sort of like nameless, faceless individuals. They never came over to that side of the second floor. They never were visible. So it was also like there was like this barrier between the two worlds. It was a totally different world. And then when I moved over, it unlocked the reality of the Executive Chamber. It felt like I was in the real Executive Chamber.

Q. What do you mean when you say it felt like you were in the real Executive Chamber?

A. I went from being around -- I mean, I was -- my day-to-day when I was in

1 Confidential

2 the Lieutenant Governor's Office working for 3 [REDACTED] wasn't very stressful. You know you
4 could wear -- you had to dress up, but it
5 wasn't like you had to wear fancy clothes
6 all the time. Nobody was breathing down my 7 neck or was looking at me and monitoring my 8 every move. I felt like -- it was just less 9 stressful and more fun and relaxed.

10 And then when I went over to the 11 Hall of Governor's and I was working in 12 Howard's office and the Governor was there 13 every so often and I would see all of these 14 people and I would hear all of the yelling
15 and screaming and the stress, it felt like I 16 went from, you know, being in Parks and Rec
17 to being like in the West Wing.

18 And I was told I had to wear
19 high heels when the Governor was in the 20 office, and I felt it was just a much more 21 high pressure environment. There was a lot 22 cursing and screaming. And I began to learn 23 quickly who were our enemies and who were 24 our friends and who was important and who 25 wasn't important. It was just -- for

2 someone with my background, I was a little 3 naive and didn't know what that world was 4 like. I had some involvement in politics up
5 until that point, you know, locally involved
6 in some small town campaigns, but I 7 didn't -- I didn't really know what I was 8 walking into. And I knew that the best -- 9 the easiest way to survive and get by and 10 not get in trouble and not get a target on 11 my back was just to look nice, be nice, do 12 what I was told.

13 Q. I'll want to talk more about
14 that.

15 First, other than sitting in the 16 Lieutenant Governor's Office and then in 17 Howard Glaser's office, did you sit anywhere 18 else during the time you worked in the 19 Executive Chamber?

20 A. Yes. So after Howard -- so 21 Howard left after -- so the Governor ran for 22 his second time in 2014 and he was reelected 23 and that's when [REDACTED] left and Kathy 24 Hochul joined the administration, and I
25 think Howard had promised the Governor that

2 he would stick with him through that and 3 then he left to go take a lobbying job. He 4 left to go take a lobbying job. He went to 5 go work for some company that lobbied for 6 airlines or airports. And so he took off, 7 and then he was replaced in -- in a quick 8 amount of time by Jim Malatras, who was 9 young and who had been working for SUNY for 10 the SUNY Chancellor. He's now the SUNY 11 Chancellor himself. But showed up and he 12 sort of inherited me as like an accessory in 13 his office, but he didn't really have 14 anything for me to do. The only task that 15 I'd been given by Howard that kind of stuck 16 around under Jim was I was tasked with 17 overseeing and being the Executive Chamber 18 liaison to the New York State Council on the 19 Arts, which is like a really small state 20 agency.

21 And then I quickly started to 22 feel like Jim wanted me out of there. He 23 didn't really have any use for me and 24 so -- and then [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was like 25 beleaguered and hadn't been promoted to dept

1 Confidential

2 sec from assistant secretary and he already 3 had a special assistant person and he didn't 4 really need for anything.

5 And a gentleman by the name John 6 Maggiore, who had been serving as the chief 7 of staff to [REDACTED], was promoted, like 8 they kind of created a job for him. They 9 called him the director of policy after [REDACTED] 10 left, and they brought him over from the 11 Lieutenant Governor's Office to the -- to an 12 office across the hall from the Director of 13 State Operations Office, previously occupied
14 by [REDACTED] -- shoot, a [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
15 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
16 [REDACTED], [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
17 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], [REDACTED]
18 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], so in his office.
19 So John was had been put in that office.

20 And I had been trying to make 21 inroads with John, knowing, you know, John 22 was from Buffalo and was very policy-minded 23 and a smart person, and I thought maybe he's 24 somebody that I could align myself with,
25 maybe he has an opportunity, maybe he could

1 Confidential

2 use me for something. So I lobbied to get 3 in with John, and he basically put me at a 4 desk outside of his office, gave me access 5 to his e-mail and I was like a scheduler for 6 him and I helped him write op-eds and 7 speeches. I helped with the -- helped 8 writing the State of the State policy book, 9 things like that.

10 But again, it lacked a lot of 11 structure. I found out through the 12 grapevine in the Chamber that the policy 13 team under John was viewed as the "land of 14 misfit toys." It was me, a woman by the 15 name of [REDACTED], a gentleman named [REDACTED]
16 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
17 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED],
18 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
19 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED],
20 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
21 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
22 [REDACTED]. So [REDACTED] was there and there were a 23 couple of other random people. And we 24 didn't really know what our jobs were.

25 So I started looking -- this was

1 Confidential

2 towards the -- like the middle of 3 2015 -- early 2015, middle of 2015, and then 4 I started actively looking for a job just to 5 get out, just like be closer to home and get 6 some semblance of structure and normalcy
7 back into my life.

8 Q. Did you have an understanding of 9 what the idea -- "the land of misfit toys" 10 meant or was meant to convey?

11 A. Yeah, it was like you guys can't 12 really cut it, you're not cut from the same 13 fabric as the other -- you know, the pit 14 bulls basically that rise to prominence in 15 Cuomoland. So you kind sit here and take 16 what they give you and do -- but no one was 17 ever really going to get fired because they 18 didn't want to let anyone go. I started to 19 learn early on they didn't want to allow 20 people to leave I think because of, you 21 know, knowledge of the inner workings, and 22 they like to protect the narrative and 23 control where you go after you work for the 24 Governor, so that you're in some sense of 25 beholden and you're not going to like be a

1 Confidential

2 whistleblower or something. Because I
3 remember when I got the job at Cornell and I 4 got out, people sort of murmuring, like,
5 wow, you're lucky.

6 Para but it was a lateral move.
7 I was making the exact same salary and I had 8 to move. It was not like I did it -- I 9 viewed my decision to get out and to get 10 that job, I viewed it as a personal and a 11 professional failure, like I can't cut it on 12 the second floor, I can't cut in Albany.

13 Also, I was [REDACTED]
14 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. [REDACTED]
15 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
16 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] 17 [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. But some folks there were,
18 like, oh, you were lucky, you got out, you 19 didn't need to call in any favors, like 20 you're free kind of thing.

21 There was one story that I
22 learned of sort of early on, a young woman
23 named [REDACTED] [REDACTED], who had been working 24 for [REDACTED] [REDACTED], who at the time was the 25 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], she got

2 a job offer, I think, working for [REDACTED], like 3 a better job, better pay, and because she 4 didn't ask Joe Percoco's permission to apply 5 for the job, he like flipped out at her and 6 yelled at her, and then he called [REDACTED] and 7 had the job offer taken away. And I learned 8 of that, you know, through secondary 9 sources, but that was the first time I
10 learned that, you know, they don't let you 11 go without a fight, particularly if you have 12 spent time working on the campaign, if had 13 seen things, heard things, which was kind of 14 disconcerting, I guess.

15 Q. And when did you learn about 16 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] experience and difficulty
17 leaving to go to [REDACTED]?

18 A. How did I learn about it?

19 Q. First, when, the first time?

20 A. Oh, probably in early like 2014.
21 Sometime in 2014. And I learned of it 22 through younger staffers. There was sort of 23 a cohort in the second floor and in some of 24 the agencies of younger staffers who had 25 worked on the campaign. They called

2 themselves "the crew." And [REDACTED] [REDACTED], 3 who was the woman I mentioned earlier, who 4 sat near me, was one of them. And then 5 there was a gentleman named [REDACTED] [REDACTED], who 6 was one of them. [REDACTED] [REDACTED], who up 7 until recently was still working for the 8 Governor, was a big part of that crew.
9 Several -- [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED].
10 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED].
11 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] worked in the Lieutenant 12 Governor's Office. There were a bunch of 13 them. And I -- I didn't ingratiate myself 14 to them necessarily. They didn't like the 15 Fellowships. They were kind of upset when 16 the Fellowships showed up because we all 17 showed up without having volunteered on the 18 campaign and we were making more money than 19 all of them and we were kind of around the 20 same age and they didn't like that. And -- 21 and because I had to work in close proximity 22 to so many of them, I used my soft skills to 23 try and just be nice and like get along with 24 them and convey to them that like, hey, I 25 don't know what the heck I'm doing here, I

1 Confidential

2 don't know what I'm doing here, I'm sorry, I
3 didn't realize that that was case. You
4 know, and I started to be friendly with 5 them, and I learned through them some of 6 that gossip, you know, I learned about [REDACTED]
7 and I learned about like other -- just other 8 bits of gossip.

9 Q. What other bits of gossip did 10 you learn from them?

11 A. Umm, there was a lot. Like who 12 was hooking up with who kind of thing.

13 Q. Did you learn any information 14 concerning the Governor from any members of 15 the crew?

16 A. I learned that the Governor 17 doesn't use e-mail. I learned that the 18 Governor -- I learned through them that like 19 the Governor could get like really, really 20 mad and scream and yell. I learned
21 about -- there was a gentleman named [REDACTED]

23 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

24 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], and

25 I learned about the time that [REDACTED] pissed off the Governor and the Governor like got up in his face with a football. And I learned that the Governor likes -- the Governor likes leggy women and the Governor only wears Salvatore Ferragamo ties. I learned about the time that he got down and, you know, shoe-shined [REDACTED] shoes. I learned that the Governor doesn't like when the guys wear anything besides white dress shirts. And I learned that the Governor only likes things whenever he's -- because [REDACTED] was one of his advance guys, and I learned how they would have to like change the thermostat so that it was 60 degrees for the Governor, that kind of stuff. Nothing -- nothing about like the Governor having sex with people or touching anybody, nothing like that on that lever. Just like the Governor is a tyrant basically.

And then in terms of like other gossip, I learned that [REDACTED], [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

Confidential

2 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. I
3 thought that was bizarre. I learned through 4 them that [REDACTED] [REDACTED], [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
5 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
6 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], and I
7 thought that was weird. And I learned 8 about, oh, in Albany everybody has like an 9 Albany girlfriend, like the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] 10 [REDACTED], you know, they stay out all night, and 11 I remember feeling kind of gross and seedy 12 about it.

13 And I could understand why the 14 crew developed like rapport with one 15 another. You know, they were all in like 16 their 20s and from like all over New York 17 State and like their families were like from 18 all over the place and they found family in 19 each other and solace and comfort, despite 20 all of the gross savagery.

21 Q. You mentioned that you learned
22 from the crew that the Governor doesn't use
23 e-mail. Did anyone ever discuss any reasons
24 why the Governor didn't use e-mail?

25 A. Yeah, I learned from [REDACTED]

1 Confidential

2 [REDACTED], who was tight with Rich Azzopardi, 3 that the Governor doesn't use e-mails
4 because he doesn't want to put stuff in 5 writing. He would only uses BlackBerry
6 messaging. And I also learned this through 7 [REDACTED] because [REDACTED] -- one thing --

8 So I'll just say this about

9 [REDACTED] When I was working under him, [REDACTED]
10 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
11 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], he never -- I 12 remember he seemed sort of put off and 13 annoyed by the fact that I was chipper and 14 excited to work there, almost like he was 15 like why do you want to work here, it's the 16 worst frigging place in the world.

17 And because -- because [REDACTED]
18 was constantly on the Governor's speed dial 19 list. Like I remember hearing him on the 20 phone with the Governor, the Governor
21 yelling at him, the Governor constantly 22 Blackberry messaging him, and [REDACTED] had
23 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], 24 and I could tell it was really a strain for 25 him working there, and in some of my

1 Confidential

2 traveling with [REDACTED] for the Regional 3 Council stuff, he would divulge stuff like 4 that, like, yeah, he doesn't e-mail, he 5 doesn't da-da-da.

6 And then just a couple of years
7 ago, I think it was 2018, I was at a 8 conference in San Francisco for my job at 9 SEMICON West, and [REDACTED] was there because 10 at the time -- you know, he got out for a 11 few years and was tasked to run the center
12 for economic growth in Albany. He's not 13 there anymore, but because he was at CEG, he 14 went to that conference, and he and I got 15 beer together and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] 16 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and he was honest with me and 17 shared a lot about how awful it was and how 18 miserable he was and how chaotic it was and 19 how the job didn't make any sense.

20 So anyways, the short answer is 21 I learned through [REDACTED] and through some 22 folks involved in the communications team
23 that the Governor doesn't put anything in 24 writing, really.

25 Q. Let's rewind to your move to

1 Confidential

2 Howard Glaser's office, after you worked 3 with him on these reels, at the time what 4 did you think that the move to Howard
5 Glaser's office meant?

6 A. I thought it meant that I was 7 being promoted to a higher level position
8 and that I had taken my Fellowship a step 9 further and sort of made it, and I
10 remember -- you know, those feelings you get 11 like if you get promoted or you get 12 something that other people want and you can 13 tell like people are sort of envious of you, 14 and you feel sort of ashamed, but you are 15 also sort of proud of yourself, I remember 16 feeling like with the other fellows, like 17 they were all kind of like envious, like, 18 wow, Ana gets to go over and work in 19 Howard's office.

20 And I remember [REDACTED], who 21 was [REDACTED]
22 [REDACTED]. We had professional development
23 stuff that we would do on the side. Tuesday
24 night we would go to the Rockefeller 25

1 Confidential

2 Institute and take classes and listen to 3 lectures with each other, and I remember [REDACTED]
4 announcing to the team, you know, everybody,
5 Ana is working in Howard Glaser's office, 6 you know, this is evidence of the fact that 7 the Fellowship really works and, you know,
8 we're unearthing talent from different
9 corners of the state and all over the place
10 and installing you in higher levels of state
11 service. So I thought it was a big deal.

12 Q. Did anyone say -- did anyone 13 else say anything to you in addition to what 14 this gentleman you just mentioned say to you 15 make you think that the move to Howard's
16 office was a big deal?

17 A. Yeah, well, when [REDACTED] [REDACTED] 18 came to my previous office space to let me 19 know that this was happening, he said 20 congratulations, you know, you caught his 21 eye. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] said congratulations,
22 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] said congratulations, like, wow, 23 somebody likes you, you know, get ready for 24 bigger and better responsibilities.

25 Q. Did you have any understanding

1 Confidential

2 of the reasons you were moved to Howard
3 Glaser's office?

4 A. I was not informed, like he 5 didn't call me into his office and say I 6 really was impressed by your work ethic and 7 your skills and I want to bring you over to 8 do X, Y and Z. I thought it was because he 9 was impressed by overseeing my efforts to 10 reconfigure the Regional Council award 11 ceremony videos and that he thought I was 12 somebody who maybe he could groom into a 13 role on his team.

14 The desk that I occupied in his 15 office had previously been occupied by a 16 gentleman named [REDACTED], who was an 17 attorney. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
18 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
19 [REDACTED], and so there was this open desk and 20 Howard put me on it, and I was like, oh, I'm 21 not a lawyer, what does he want me to do, 22 and I never really got an answer to that.

23 Q. Did you ever talk with Howard
24 about your background?

25 A. No, he never really asked.

1 Confidential

2 There were certainly times when I might have 3 divulged like, oh, yeah, I used to work in 4 the news media. He knew I was from 5 Rochester and that I had worked in economic 6 development, but beyond that, I don't -- I 7 don't know what he knew.

8 I quickly -- and maybe this is 9 just an assumption, but it was an assumption 10 that was like bolstered by other people's 11 observations, and it's something like when 12 you're a woman who is attractive and you can 13 tell when people are looking at you, you can 14 tell when -- you can tell when certain 15 things are granted to you because you're 16 good looking. I felt like that was why. I 17 quickly sort of chalked it up to that. I 18 was like, well, I'm not here because they 19 think I'm like Elon Musk or something. I 20 just fit the profile and I do what I'm told.

21 Q. When did you start feeling that 22 way, that the reason for your move was 23 because they thought -- because someone 24 found you attractive?

25 A. Not long after I went over there. You know, maybe about a week or two in. Because [REDACTED] [REDACTED], who was [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], and who had been working in that environment her whole career, like she had been [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], she was the secretary that actually -- she told me she cleaned out [REDACTED] [REDACTED] office when he left. She had been there forever, she was seated in that office where I was situated, she was very observant, she had a good relationship with the Governor's secretary and briefers and everything, and she was the one who told me wear high heels, look attractive, wear a skirt, wear a dress, you know, do your hair, all that, and she had observed --

Like when the Governor first -- it was like my second or third day in the office and the Governor was there, and he came through and sort of was flirtatious and, you know, friendly, and she said, oh, he likes you, honey. And I was told that he likes blonds, and I thought, okay, well, I guess this is Mad Men.

1 Confidential

2 And so I thought my currency was 3 what I looked like, and I noticed that most 4 of the other women on that side of the 5 second floor were conventionally attractive 6 women and they all dressed to the nines and 7 wore stilettos and skirts and that was the 8 environment.

9 Q. What did you think when 10 [REDACTED] told you, oh, he likes you, 11 honey, and, oh, that he likes blonds in 12 relation to the Governor?

13 A. I thought, oh, okay, well, that 14 means, like, he'll remember my name and 15 he'll know who I am, and I guess that's a 16 good thing. I didn't think that that means 17 the Governor is going to try and be a 18 predator. I just thought he was, like, a 19 creepy middle-aged man, but he was a really 20 powerful man, and in that environment he was 21 the center of gravity, and everywhere that 22 he was the most important place. So if he 23 looked kindly upon you, it was like the sun
24 was shining upon you.

25 Q. In what way was it like the sun

1 Confidential

2 was shining on you if the Governor looked 3 kindly upon you?

4 A. You know, that means that the 5 most powerful man in New York State likes me
6 and my job here is safe and maybe it means 7 that I will get promoted and I will earn a 8 bigger salary here and I will -- and other 9 people will begin to know my name and I will 10 have bigger responsibilities simply because 11 Andrew Cuomo thinks that I'm cute and sweet 12 and worthy of his trust.

13 Q. Did you see things play out that 14 way for anyone?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Who?

17 A. Melissa DeRosa, [REDACTED] 18 [REDACTED], Annabel Walsh, many of his 19 briefers. Many of his briefers, they 20 were -- his briefers were always young women
21 and they oftentimes were promoted to better
22 jobs if he liked them.

23 And certainly Stephanie Benton, 24 I mean, as an admin she was one of the most 25 powerful people on the second floor. He gave her carte blanche, you know, and she's a beautiful woman who -- and then [REDACTED], I think is her first name, [REDACTED] was another one. [REDACTED], [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], she was the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED].

And I don't want to -- it's hard to explain, but you know, it's Albany, it's not known, it's not like it's Beverly Hills, you know, and I was just -- there were just so many beautiful women everywhere in that immediate -- in those immediate -- in that immediate vicinity. And I know that that's not illegal per se, but --

Q. When you say "beautiful"?

A. -- it raised the flag.

Q. When you say "beautiful women," could you describe what they looked like?

A. Long hair, long slender legs, dresses and skirts, both blond and brunette, you know, cleavage and jewelry and sweet smelling perfume. I felt like I kind of had to step up my game there.

Q. What about in terms of age, was

1 Confidential

2 there a particular profile there?

3 A. Yeah, 20s and 30s for briefers.
4 Secretaries working under Stephanie, any of 5 the fellows that were elevated into 6 assistant secretary or deputy secretary
7 roles were younger women. And then there
8 were some older women too, like [REDACTED]
9 [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] 10 [REDACTED], who were not young per se, they were 11 in their 40s, but you know, were trading in 12 the same currency.

13 And I overlapped quite a bit
14 towards the end of my Fellowship with 15 Lindsey Boylan, and I remember recalling the 16 same thing, like, oh, wow, she's so 17 beautiful and so tall, and I noticed that 18 she was always coming to Albany and meeting
19 with the Governor.

20 Q. What about racial or ethnic 21 background, did the women that you described 22 as the beautiful women, were they a 23 particular profile?

24 A. Yeah, they were white or in a 25 couple of cases Latino, but I did not see

1 Confidential

2 black or brown women in that type of 3 position or in that type of category or 4 profile.

5 Also, I remember there was a
6 woman named [REDACTED] [REDACTED], who -- I think she 7 was the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
8 [REDACTED] or something. I can't recall
9 exactly. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED],
10 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] 11 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], and I just remember that 12 Joe Percoco and the Governor, like, hated 13 [REDACTED] and they would make fun of her, and 14 ultimately they got rid of her.

15 I remember thinking like that's 16 probably not just based on her track record, 17 because she was really smart and had a lot 18 of credentials. It was probably because she 19 wasn't pleasing to the eye for them. I 20 remember that struck me as like, oh, of 21 course, they're going to throw somebody like 22 that out on the curb or make her feel so 23 unwelcome and uncomfortable here or 24 powerless here that she'll go, you know, for 25 greener pastures.

1 Confidential

2 Q. Do you remember what led to her 3 departure, whether she left or she was 4 dismissed?

5 A. I don't recall either way. I
6 just remember she left or she was gone.

7 Q. After your initial pride about 8 moving desks to Howard Glaser's office, how 9 did you feel about moving desks?

10 A. I felt trapped.

11 Q. What do you mean by that?

12 A. I felt like on the one hand I 13 had been given this great opportunity and 14 other fellows and other staff members in the 15 Chamber were envious and thought, wow, 16 that's so cool, Ana gets to sit there, she's 17 so lucky, but then on the other hand, I felt 18 like I was collecting dust and I wasn't 19 being given a lot of meaningful work and 20 that I felt that somehow that was my fault,
21 like I didn't -- I wasn't taking enough
22 initiative, I wasn't enough of a -- I wasn't 23 aggressive enough. Like I -- it was very 24 hollow. I wasn't being given enough work to 25 sort of fill out eight hours a day, and I

Confidential

2 wasn't being called to New York City really 3 at all. And at the time that was really the 4 seat of New York State government. The 5 Governor was in New York City all the time
6 and not really in Albany. And I was like,
7 wow, my job is a real waste of taxpayers' 8 dollars. And I also thought that it was 9 weird and ironic that, you know, I was a 10 line item in HCR's budget and I wasn't doing 11 any work that had do with housing and 12 community renewal. And I just felt like an 13 accessory kind of thing.

14 Q. When you say you "felt like an 15 accessory," what do you mean by that?

16 A. Like I was allowed to 17 participate in soirees here and there at the 18 Executive Mansion and I was allowed to play 19 functional roles and things like Regional 20 Council meetings still on a case-by-case 21 basis that were public facing, but 22 internally I wasn't a real cog in any one 23 wheel, and the Governor -- so working in the 24 Executive Chamber, you're supposed to feel 25 like, okay, I work for the Governor of the

1 Confidential

2 State of New York, the Governor is my boss.
3 The Governor didn't have any clue, I think,
4 what I was doing there or what my job was,
5 never asked me a question about it, and I
6 thought that was weird.

7 And I thought it was my fault,
8 like I thought I'm not smart enough to be 9 here. Even though I continuously was 10 planting seeds, I was always asking [REDACTED] 11 [REDACTED] and John Maggiore and other folks, 12 like do you need me to do anything, what can 13 I do, do you have any projects for me to 14 work on, is there anything that I do to help 15 you out.

16 And I remember wishing that I
17 had been given a less sexy and visible 18 assignment. Like I wished that I was put in 19 a desk at like the State Liquor Authority or 20 something and tasked with making a program
21 more efficient or something like that so 22 that I had a real purpose. But like I was 23 doing things like checking people in at 24 mansion parties, and it was just -- it was 25 all very like a lot of one-off assignments.

Confidential

And I kept track of things that I was really proud of, like the work I did for the Councils, the work I did with the New York State Council on the Arts, helping them with their budget negotiations. It was all stuff that in the grand scheme of things that was not seen as important at all, but for me it was like this is important, this is my track record. I know I'm not going to be here forever, I need to like tick off the list and then finish my Fellowship and then I'm going to get -- go back upstate.

Q. I want to go back to the comments you had made earlier, the statements you made about [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], and you said that Joe Percoco and the Governor used to make fun of her. What would the Governor say about [REDACTED] [REDACTED]?

A. I don't recall hearing him specifically saying anything. A lot of what I knew that the Governor -- a lot of the opinions that I knew he held, the sort of derisiveness that -- with which he would treat people, I learned through secondary

2 sources. But I knew they would call her, I
3 think it was, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
4 or something.

5 Q. Do you know if the Governor
6 called [REDACTED] [REDACTED] that?

7 A. I didn't hear of any that 8 offhand. Part of me thinks that, you know, 9 in some ways I was protected from it or like 10 I was intentionally -- there was like a 11 certain wall that was put up. But I have it 12 on good authority that the Governor shared 13 those opinions. There were certain people
14 that he was -- there was Joe Percoco, Howard 15 Glaser, Jim Malatras, certain 16 individuals -- Larry Schwartz, certain 17 individuals who were privy -- [REDACTED] [REDACTED] 18 too, that were privy to his inner thoughts 19 and discriminatory -- the labels that he 20 would place on people. So I can't speak to 21 those things directly. I just believed that 22 those were things that he may have said.

23 Q. Were there any other 24 discriminatory things that you were told the 25 Governor may have said?

1 Confidential

2 A. I would have to think about
3 that. I guess no. Just that the Governor
4 didn't like unattractive people unless you
5 had something else to offer, I suppose. So, 6 no, yeah, I don't know if I could speak to 7 that.

8 Q. Just continuing, completing that 9 line of questioning, are you aware of any 10 statements other than the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] 11 statement by the Governor that would be 12 considered offensive regarding members of 13 the LGBTQIA community?

14 A. Not that I was privy to.

15 Q. Or anything that you heard 16 about?

17 A. No, no, I couldn't speak to it, 18 but I certainly wouldn't be surprised if 19 there was other activities taking place that 20 were discriminatory.

21 Q. And did you hear or hear about 22 any comments by the Governor that would be 23 offensive to racial or ethnic minorities?

24 A. No, no, not that I can recall.
25 The only thing I know again that

Confidential

I think is public knowledge is that, you know, Andrew being the brainchild of Vote for Cuomo Not for the Homo, the campaign language used for his father's campaign years ago, you know, so. And there certainly were not -- there were people across the spectrum, like racial spectrum and LGBTQAI (sic) plus spectrum in administration. But like at the upper, upper echelon of his, you know, inner -- the inner sanctum, it was by and large straight and Caucasian except for Alphonso David.

Q. You said the Governor did not have unattractive people unless they had something else to offer. What did you mean by unless they had something else to offer?

A. Like connections, money, power, knowledge credentials. Like I remember feeling like, wow, literally the only reason why I'm sitting here right now is because I'm good looking and because I don't -- otherwise, I'm not serving any other purpose here. So I guess it's hard to elaborate more on that. It was just an

2 observation, I guess.

3 Q. After Mr. Glaser left and he was 4 replaced by Mr. Malatras, did you continue 5 to sit at the same desk in the office where 6 Mr. Glaser used to sit?

7 A. Yes, for a period of time, a
8 handful of months, I think, until I -- you
9 know, I talked to John Maggiore to move 10 over, and I think Jim Malatras talked to 11 John to make that happen, he wanted to make 12 room for another person in his office. I 13 don't know -- he didn't replace me until I 14 think after I left to go work for Cornell.
15 'Cause I continued -- when I switched work
16 spaces, I was working in the office across 17 the hall, so I still had sort of a view on 18 the office and my old work space.

19 Jim had a very different style
20 than Howard Glaser and there was a changing
21 of the guard, I guess. Like he -- like [REDACTED]
22 [REDACTED] left when Howard left and then Jim 23 brought in a gentleman by the name of 24 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] (phonetic) who was like one
25 of his assistants, I guess, at [REDACTED]. So

Confidential

2 [REDACTED] came over, and I started to feel 3 like, okay, the vibe here is different. Jim 4 is not giving me assignments, but he didn't 5 tell me I want you to go here, there. I had 6 to sort of figure out on my own where I was 7 going to go if I wanted to say.

8 Q. What kind of assignments did
9 Howard give you?

10 A. He had me -- my first assignment
11 for him was updating a presentation
12 prevention about Super Storm Sandy recovery 13 that he was going to be delivering to the 14 Crain's New York breakfast, it was like an 15 annual Crain's New York breakfast. He was 16 fed up with a woman named [REDACTED] [REDACTED], who was 17 the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] 18 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], I don't know why, he 19 felt that she was too much of a character,
20 and he asked me -- he's like, okay, I think 21 I want you to be sort of like kind of the 22 assistant secretary for the arts. You know,
23 we don't really have a place to put the arts 24 in any one portfolio, they don't really fit
25 in Economic Development, they don't really

fit anywhere else, we just need you to sort of oversee them, and that became my job, but it was such a small agency that never got any attention or any bandwidth in the perspective of Governor.

I thought that it was really cool and important. I took that and ran with it. It was like literally the only thing that gave me any meaning from the time that Howard gave it to me until I left. I was like this is it. And I remember [REDACTED] sent me like a flower bouquet when I was leaving, they liked having me represent them on the second floor.

And then beyond that, he would have me wordsmith speeches and presentations, he would have me take notes when he was in meetings with people, he would have me schedule meetings for him, he would have me like get him on the phone with people, so a lot of just admin stuff.

Q. Did you speak with anyone about your issues and challenges with getting a meaningful work when you were at at Chamber?

Confidential

2 A. I spoke with friends. You know,
3 I shared some of my concerns with [REDACTED],
4 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], expressed
5 frustrations, spoke to family, but I didn't 6 really have recourse on the second floor. I 7 talked to [REDACTED] like I said, and I talked 8 to John Maggiore just saying, you know, I 9 would like to stay here, I'm passionate 10 about helping carry forth the agenda, I'm 11 just looking for something with a job
12 description and a job title so I know that I 13 have a certain purpose here. Not --

14 Those conversations turned into 15 me essentially acting as John Maggiore's 16 admin, and then I learned that we were the 17 "land of misfit toys" and then I got out.
18 And it wasn't just because of professional 19 frustration. It was a lot of personal 20 frustration too, just feeling -- you know, 21 your job represents such a big piece of who 22 you are in our society, who -- the value 23 that you assign to yourself, and I just 24 believed at that point in time that I was a 25 big zero.

1 Confidential

2 And I learned the word "zero"
3 from the second floor actually. That was a 4 big -- that word that was tossed around a 5 lot by the Cuomo acolytes, "loser" and 6 "zero." And I felt if I wasn't good
7 looking, I wouldn't be sitting there and I
8 would truly be a true real zero. And a lot 9 those, you know, they're machinations in my 10 own mind, but it played out.

11 Q. When you say you felt like you
12 didn't have any recourse, what's the reason 13 you felt that you didn't have any recourse?

14 A. Well, there were no secrets
15 there. Like -- like I -- so first of all, I 16 was never briefed on the Governor's Office
17 of Employee Relations or GOER. I didn't 18 know that there was an HR function. That 19 wasn't part of my orientation process. I 20 was never introduced to anyone there. And 21 anything having to do with HR, I felt like,
22 oh, I would have to go through the New York
23 State Division of Homes and Community
24 Renewal, I don't even know anyone there, I 25 just know they sign my paychecks, and if I

1 Confidential

2 were to go over there and say I'm frustrated 3 with my role here, I'm looking for 4 reassignment, they would have no idea what I
5 was even talking about, so that's -- you
6 know, when I said earlier I felt trapped,
7 that's kind of why I felt trapped.

8 Like the only way that I could 9 advance in my career and get to a place
10 where I would feel satisfied and moving 11 forward was if I got out and I got a job 12 somewhere else, but the only way I could get 13 a job somewhere else is if I could show some 14 sort of value contribution and structure, 15 evidence of structure of the two years I was 16 there, which is why I took it upon myself to 17 really keep a track record.

18 And you know, and I took 19 a -- and I took a -- I made a lateral move 20 to go work at Cornell, and ultimately got my 21 career back on track, but I didn't -- none 22 of that was owing to the experiences I had 23 in Albany, except for knowing, you know, how 24 things work in Albany is a value to me in 25 the job I have today, I suppose, but it was

1 Confidential

2 just -- it was a -- it was not a traditional 3 workplace environment.

4 Certainly there were laws and 5 policies and rules in place that in black 6 and white were probably there to protect me
7 and to help me, but I didn't know about 8 them. And I also knew about stories, like,
9 you know, [REDACTED], and like [REDACTED]
10 [REDACTED], who felt like he was trapped there, 11 and I thought, wow, well, I guess we all 12 just have to just sit here and be punished 13 until we're granted like an opportunity like 14 a parachute to get out.

15 Q. And just following up on 16 that -- well, actually, before I move on:
17 Did you feel like you could speak with 18 anyone who was part of the Fellowship 19 program about the frustration with your 20 experience at the Chamber?

21 A. Yeah, we were told that it was 22 like a resource and we were afforded 23 the -- you know, the folks at the 24 Rockefeller Institute who helped develop the 25 curriculum to help us learn about state government that supplemented our work experience, and then there were a few staff members with the New York State Department of State, who were in charge of like managing the Fellowship program and staffing it. I can't recall the name of the woman off the top of my head, she's no longer there, but she was [REDACTED]. She was supposed to be my -- like a resource, but I didn't use it because I believed that I had to survive and figure it out on my own and I didn't think there was anything that she or anybody in the Rockefeller Institute could do to help me.

Confidential

It was supposed to be my mentor, it was supposed to [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. Even after I was reassigned into Howard's office, my mentor remained [REDACTED], and so I was supposed to leverage that relationship, you know, and -- so I probably could have worked harder to advocate on my own behalf, but I

2 was just confused and scared and uncertain.

3 Q. What's the reason for saying you 4 probably could have worked harder to 5 advocate for yourself?

6 A. Well, I was scared of 7 consequences, and there was a lot that I
8 kept to myself because I was afraid if I 9 divulged to anybody that I felt like I was 10 in a [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] or I felt that I 11 wasn't cut out for the job or that I wanted 12 to be reassigned, that that was going to 13 reflect poorly on me. So I was really 14 careful about how I managed that. And it
15 was a while ago, so some of it, you know, 16 it's hard to really articulate what may have 17 been going through my mind. I wasn't even 18 30 yet. And yeah, I felt like I was 19 failing, failing, failing, failing, failing,
20 and I just had to like keep up appearances 21 to make it look to the outside world like 22 everything was fine, even though I was 23 struggling in that workplace environment.

24 Q. Let's go to -- actually sticking 25 with that topic, did you speak with any of

1 Confidential

2 your peers about how you were experiencing
3 your time at the Chamber?

4 A. Yes, I did. There were a couple 5 of fellows that were, you know, friends of 6 mine, and we might as a group go out for a 7 drink here and there, celebrate a birthday,
8 and I remember communicating to them -- like 9 one was [REDACTED], I think [REDACTED] is still 10 there, he works for the [REDACTED]
11 [REDACTED], and then [REDACTED], who works
12 for the [REDACTED] now, and [REDACTED] 13 [REDACTED], who had been assigned to the 14 [REDACTED], I think he 15 works -- lives in [REDACTED] now. And I 16 remember just kind of expressing to them how 17 demoralizing it was and how stupid it was 18 and meaningless, how to the average person
19 in New York State -- you know, for the State 20 of the State, for instance, we would talk 21 about all these programs that we were 22 putting in place, but it was all -- a lot of 23 it was just phony. We would make a big 24 announcement and attach a number to it, and 25 then we wouldn't build any of the

1 Confidential

2 infrastructure to support.

3 I entered the Fellowship with 4 this Pollyanna-thinking that it was a 5 functional workplace environment and that we 6 were going to make things happen and I
7 quickly learned that that wasn't the case,
8 and I confided in some of the other fellows 9 about how frustrating and strange that was 10 and also just the fact that --

11 Because, you know, they would be 12 like, wow, look at you sitting in the State 13 Operations Director's Office, and I'd be 14 like it's a horrible place to be, not what 15 it -- I feel like I wish that I was back
16 over in the Lieutenant Governor's Office
17 sitting in that little cubbyhole doing 18 smaller assignments because that felt in 19 some ways a little bit more meaningful.

20 Q. Do you remember around what 21 month you moved to Howard Glaser's office?

22 A. Yeah, it was November of 2013.

23 Q. When you started the Fellowship,
24 did you get any kind of orientation?

25 A. Yes, there was an orientation associated with the Fellowship where we learn about state government, this is how the legislature is structured, this is how the budget process works, this is the history of the New York State Constitution, this is what the Fellowship is supposed to be, this is going to be your mentor, this is where you're going to be assigned, but the orientation didn't involve anything having to do with human resources in state government; you know, like helping us get our badges, knowing where we were supposed to sit on day one, there was no like org chart or employee handbook or anything that we were given. So it was kind of like a higher level orientation of, you know, you guys are the new New York State leaders, congratulation, let's teach you all about New York State government and then we'll throw you into the professional -- like your duties and then we will go from there, but it wasn't like a practical orientation, I guess, is the right way to put it.

Confidential

Q. Did you get any policies or

1 Confidential

2 trainings on sexual harassment as part of 3 your orientation?

4 A. Yeah, yes, we did learn about 5 sexual harassment and forms of 6 discrimination.

7 Q. And separately from your 8 orientation, did you ever get any policies
9 or training on sexual harassment and forms 10 of discrimination?

11 A. I think after -- wasn't there
12 like a law passed and we had to watch a 13 video, but nothing that was really robust.
14 I remember having to watch a video and like 15 click a confirmation that I had watched a 16 video.

17 Q. Do you remember getting a 18 handbook that covered forms of 19 discrimination and sexual harassment?

20 A. No, I don't remember getting a 21 handbook.

22 Q. We're going back to the 23 exhibits, and we are going to refer to Tab 1 24 and we will mark it as an exhibit.

25 (Exhibit 3, handbook, Tab 1,

1 Confidential

2 marked for identification, as of this
3 date.)

4 A. Tab 1.

5 Q. Tab 1.

6 A. Okay, I have it open.

7 Q. So Tab 1 should be the New York
8 Executive Department handbook for Employees
9 of New York State Agencies dated December 10 2011. Do you see that?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. Have you seen this document
13 before?

14 A. Not that I can recall. It may 15 have been given to me in a larger packet of 16 materials and I may have just not looked at 17 it.

18 Q. Okay. We're going to turn to 19 page 11.

20 A. I'm on page 11.

21 Q. Great. The third subheading
22 under "SEX" says, "Sexual harassment" and it
23 goes on to define "sexual harassment," and I
24 can give you a couple of minutes to read
25 that.

1 Confidential

2 A. Okay, I've finished reading
3 that.

4 Q. Before today have you seen that
5 definition of "sexual harassment" before?

6 A. Yeah, my attorney shared
7 the -- this language with me. Whether it
8 was from this document or from somewhere
9 else, I recall seeing it.

10 Q. And other than any discussions
11 with your attorney, have you seen this 12 definition of "sexual harassment" before?

13 A. In theory. Maybe not 14 specifically this language, but -- I 15 suppose, yes, but I don't know if it was 16 this exact language, you know, from New York 17 State law.

18 Q. And specifically do you remember
19 seeing a definition of "sexual harassment" 20 from the time when you worked in the 21 Executive Chamber?

22 A. I don't remember specifically 23 seeing a definition or being read a 24 definition. I just knew in general what it 25 was and that it wasn't lawful.

1 Confidential

2 Q. And as a reminder, in response
3 to any of my questions, I'm not asking you
4 for information about any communications 5 that you've had with your attorney. That is 6 protected by your attorney-client privilege.

7 A. Okay.

8 Q. We will take this exhibit off
9 and move on to discuss your interactions
10 with the Governor, but before I do that, I 11 will pause and find out if Ms. Kennedy Park 12 has any questions.

13 MS. PARK: I don't have any 14 other questions right now. Thank you,
15 Abena.

16 MS. MAINOO: We will take a 17 break.

18 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're now
19 going off the record. The time is 20 3:10.

21 (Recess.)

22 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're now
23 going back on. The time is 3:17.

24 Q. Ms. Liss, I would like to turn
25 to your interactions with the Governor.

1 Confidential

2 When was the first time that you met the 3 Governor?

4 A. It would have been the week that 5 I relocated to Howard Glaser's office, so 6 sometime in November of 2013.

7 Q. Please describe that first
8 meeting with the Governor.

9 A. He walked in to my office area,
10 which I shared with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and 11 [REDACTED] [REDACTED], and I remember, you know, he 12 was very tall, he was wearing a suit and 13 like a red tie and his pin and he went over 14 and said hello to [REDACTED], he hugged her, 15 and then he came over and was like and who 16 is this young lady and -- to me, and I stood 17 up and, you know, I shook his hand, hello, 18 Governor. And he asked me like where are 19 you from, and it was one -- I don't know if 20 it was the first time that we had an 21 interaction or if it was one of the 22 subsequent occasions that, you know, he had 23 kissed my hand and asked me if I had a 24 boyfriend and kissed my cheek. I think it 25 was a subsequent interaction, but it took

1 Confidential

2 place in that office.

3 Q. And how would you characterize
4 that first interaction?

5 A. It felt kind of grandfatherly
6 and like he was sort of sussing me out, like 7 who are you, because it was important to the 8 Governor to know who was around him at any 9 given time, who might be observant of what 10 was going on in that office area, and so he 11 wanted my name, where am I from, who am I,
12 I'm one of the Empire State fellows, okay, I 13 said I worked for Howard. I remember he 14 called me "young lady" at that point in 15 time, and I remember feeling like he liked
16 me, he was friendly. And I remember [REDACTED] 17 observed, oh, he likes you, Ana. That was 18 when she made that comment.

19 Q. How did you interpret that 20 comment by [REDACTED] ?

21 A. Just that like I fit the profile 22 of the -- you know, my appearance was 23 attractive to the Governor, and that was a 24 good thing for my ability to survive and 25 stay there and that he was going to be

1 Confidential

2 friendly towards me and I didn't have to be 3 worried or scared that I might be a target 4 of anything negative.

5 Q. At that point had you heard
6 about anyone else being a target of any 7 negative behavior coming from the Governor?

8 A. Well, I knew about [REDACTED]
9 [REDACTED] and getting -- you know, pissing
10 off the Governor and getting summarily fired 11 or reassigned. And I had learned from 12 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] that the Governor could get 13 really angry and upset and take it out on 14 people, including [REDACTED] who had expressed 15 to me that he'd been screamed at before.
16 So, yeah, I knew that his reputation was not 17 that he was a sweet and kind man.

18 Q. And you described the Governor
19 as "grandfatherly" during that interaction.
20 What did you mean by that?

21 A. Like, you know, kind of gazing 22 into my eyes and somewhat flirtatious and 23 warm.

24 Q. What way was the Governor
25 flirtatious during that first meeting,

1 Confidential

2 somewhat flirtatious?

3 A. The way that he held my hand,
4 held onto my hand and was making eye contact
5 and was smiling at me.

6 Q. Describe your later interactions
7 with the Governor in the office; what 8 interactions did you have?

9 A. Very -- it was always in that 10 office we -- he would come through and say
11 hello to [REDACTED], sometimes he'd be singing 12 a song, whatever, and he would come over to 13 my desk, and there were playful
14 interjections. And at one point I remember 15 him asking do you -- do you have a boyfriend
16 and I remember him kissing me on the cheek
17 and kissing me on the hand. I remember him
18 asking me at one point, like, Miss Liss, do 19 you follow me on Twitter or something like 20 that. I don't know. It was never anything 21 all that substantive, but flirtatious 22 certainly.

23 Q. How did you respond when the 24 Governor asked you if you had a boyfriend?

25 A. I said not at the movement. I

1 Confidential

2 was kind of in between the time. I was 3 like, no, Governor, something like that.

4 Q. What did you think of the 5 Governor asking you if you had a boyfriend?

6 A. I thought it was weird, but 7 typical of him. Like if it was any other 8 workplace environment, if it had been my 9 boss here or my boss prior to the working at 10 the Governor's offices, I'd be like that's 11 disgusting, eww, but for whatever reason in 12 his office the rules were different. It was 13 just, you should view it as a compliment if 14 the Governor finds you aesthetically
15 pleasing enough, if he finds you interesting 16 enough to ask questions like that.

17 And so even though it was 18 strange and uncomfortable and technically 19 not permissible in a typical workplace
20 environment, I was in this mindset that it 21 was the twilight zone and the rules -- the 22 typical rules did not apply. It was like we 23 were in a different decade. So I didn't 24 think, oh, I'm going to go complain because 25 that would have been laughable to go

1 Confidential

2 complain about something like that. You
3 know, in that culture, in the office
4 culture, I would have been laughed out of 5 town.

6 Q. Who would you have complained 7 to?

8 A. I don't even know. Maybe [REDACTED]
9 [REDACTED], but [REDACTED] [REDACTED] probably would 10 have laughed at me, and I didn't know the 11 first thing about GOER and where to go to 12 talk to someone there. I just remember 13 thinking that the broader sentiment was that 14 if the Governor thought -- if you were a 15 young woman the Governor thought was 16 beautiful and thought was interesting enough 17 to ask questions like that, you should just 18 feel flattered and, you know, maybe that 19 means -- that bodes well for your career, 20 like you're not going to get fired and 21 they're not going to talk shit about you
22 behind your back and act like you're a zero 23 and a loser and, you know, they'll want to 24 keep you around because they liked having 25 you around.

1 Confidential

2 And for me it was like, well, I
3 need this job because I have to pay my 4 student loans down and I really am
5 interested in public service and government
6 and I'm going to white-knuckle this 7 experience, and if it means that the 8 Governor kissing me on the cheek and asking 9 if I have a boyfriend like leads to I get to 10 stay here and I get to be elevated, then so 11 be it. And it feels weird saying, but that 12 was definitely what was, you know, my mental 13 calculus at the time.

14 Q. Did anyone communicate that 15 sentiment to you, that if the Governor spoke 16 with you and asked you those kinds of 17 questions, like if you had a boyfriend, you 18 should be flattered?

19 A. Yeah, [REDACTED]. [REDACTED]
20 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] She was like, oh,
21 honey, that's good, that means he likes you.
22 You know, [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. The younger people
23 in the crew that I mentioned, it was like 24 seen as, okay, that's a feather in your cap, 25 that means that he doesn't hate you. The

1 Confidential

2 Governor either hates you or he likes you or 3 he doesn't -- or you're nobody to him.

4 And I knew a lot of the people
5 that worked there that were subject to his 6 abuse and ire. You know, [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
7 being one of them. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] being another 8 one. These guys that were yelled at all the 9 time and --

10 But I didn't get yelled at, and,
11 you know, Melissa didn't get yelled out.
12 Beautiful, beautiful women that were sweet 13 and docile didn't get yelled at and were 14 given fun little assignments, I suppose.

15 Q. You made a comment about how the 16 culture was from "a different decade." What 17 did you mean by that?

18 A. Well, I had just around that 19 time, like I had been -- finished watching
20 Mad Men or I was in the midst of watching
21 it, and I remember thinking like, oh, wow,
22 Stephanie Benton is just like Joan Colloway 23 (sic), and you know, all of these men in 24 this have attractive female gatekeepers, 25 kind of like in Mad Men. And when I was

Confidential

2 told I had to wear heels -- you know, I -- I 3 in my previous job prior to coming to 4 Albany, it's not like I was dressing like a 5 slob or anything, but I wore pants and flats
6 and stuff, and I didn't -- I'm not good with 7 time management. It's not like I would wake 8 up an hour before having to go work and like 9 get all dolled up, but I learned that you
10 got to kind of get dolled up, and I thought 11 that felt very Mad Men era.

12 And it was an Albany thing too, 13 so I didn't necessarily think, oh, this is 14 all just Andrew Cuomo. I think what I
15 learned is that his MO was cooked up by, I 16 think, maybe working for his dad and like 17 running the show under his dad, like Albany 18 in the '80s and '90s, and that was very 19 much -- that culture was permeated, the 20 legislature and all the different 21 legislative offices, and it just felt like, 22 wow, I'm three and a half hours away from 23 home, but I feel like I'm a hundred. -- you 24 know, I feel like I'm on the other side of 25 the country from Rochester. This is just so

1 Confidential

2 bizarre. Like this isn't D.C., like get 3 over yourself kind of thing.

4 But people trade in sex and 5 power and money in Albany, and that is very 6 much true on the second floor and trickles
7 down into the -- the far reaches of state
8 government, and it has been that what way
9 for a long time, I suppose.

10 Q. How did you learn that you had 11 to get dolled up for work?

12 A. From [REDACTED], from [REDACTED], and from 13 [REDACTED], [REDACTED], and from general
14 observation. You know, everybody is wearing 15 feminine attire and looks beautiful and 16 styled, and I'm not going to be the one, you 17 know, with -- I'm not going to be the one 18 not looking the part, I guess, but I knew I 19 was supposed to when he's in Albany -- and I
20 should say when he wasn't in Albany, I 21 didn't necessarily -- I didn't abide by that 22 principle, I was much more casual, but when 23 I was in Albany, I made a point to dress up 24 and to look great because I had been told 25 and I knew it was the rule.

1 Confidential

2 Q. How much time did he spend in 3 Albany during your time in the Executive 4 Chamber?

5 A. Maybe a couple of days a week in 6 nonbudget season. It was during budget
7 season when the LEG was in session. He was 8 there more frequently. But Albany wasn't 9 his favorite place to be at the time. He 10 was still in a relationship with [REDACTED] 11 at that point in time and he was in New York 12 a lot, and I guess I just assumed it was 13 because he was at home or something. I 14 understand that more recently in recent 15 years he is in Albany a lot more because the 16 Chamber -- or the Executive Mansion, excuse
17 me, has become his primary residence.

18 Q. What did you think of the 19 Governor kissing you on the cheek and 20 kissing you on the hand?

21 A. I thought he was flirting with 22 me, that he thought that I was pretty and 23 that he can get away with stuff like that 24 because he's the Governor. And I thought it 25 was like Italian. And then in hindsight,

Confidential

2 you know, when I spoke up about all of this,
3 I did so by and large because the other 4 young women that had come forward with more 5 egregious allegations weren't being believed 6 and I believed them and I wanted to share an 7 account that was less egregious and spoke to 8 the broader culture that allowed for the 9 things that happened to them to happen to 10 them. The tolerance for those 11 micro flirtations, I guess, that would allow 12 for him to act a certain way behind closed
13 doors with women in more serious manners.

14 You know, I didn't observe 15 anything that -- I didn't observe any of 16 those instances, but I believed that I 17 wanted to tell the truth about what I had 18 experienced because people needed to 19 understand that it's not just Andrew Cuomo
20 closing a door and grabbing someone's 21 breast. It was a whole army of women that 22 were being, you know, subject to smaller, 23 less serious physical interactions and that 24 that's evidence to the larger -- provides 25 more evidence to the more serious stuff

1 Confidential

2 that's happening, I guess.

3 So I can understand, you know,
4 when people -- when I tell this story and 5 people listen to me, like that's not that 6 big of a deal, you didn't complain about it,
7 but really I didn't complain about it
8 because I didn't think that I could. I
9 didn't think anyone would believe me and I 10 thought that would be a fool's errand to 11 complain about it, like I probably would 12 have lost my job, and I needed my job.

13 And also it was like -- like I
14 said, like the twilight zone, different 15 rules that were normalized, that were baked 16 into the environment that made it possible
17 for the Governor and other senior officials 18 in his administration to abuse women in a 19 more nefarious way.

20 So I sort of went off on a 21 tangent on that one. I apologize.

22 Q. No need to apologize.

23 So you referred to "rules"
24 several times. What do you mean when you
25 use the term "rules"?

1 Confidential

2 A. Standards, like mores, if that's 3 the right term. You know, different
4 workplace environments have different
5 cultures. You know, some office
6 environments are really stiff and, you know,
7 bucks and teats get here at 8 o'clock, talk
8 about the weather, others are more friendly 9 and relaxed and more casual.

10 That workplace environment had 11 its own set of standards and mores that were 12 unique to the administration and you had to 13 learn them and play the game to get along.
14 So they weren't necessarily rules that were 15 written down. Like the rule to wear high 16 heels wasn't in some handbook that I was 17 given. It was just murmurs and whispers and 18 observations.

19 Q. And that's going to be my next 20 question. How did you become aware of the 21 rules that applied at the Executive Chamber?

22 A. Through conversations with 23 the -- the young folks that were part of 24 that group, the crew, through [REDACTED]
25 [REDACTED], through observing interactions

1 Confidential

2 between senior staffers and how -- 3 particularly how women interacted with the 4 Governor.

5 Q. What did you observe about how 6 women interacted with the Governor?

7 A. Obedience, ebullient, like 8 smiley and friendly where appropriate, 9 physically put together when around him, at 10 his beck and call, following him around 11 constantly, anticipating what he wanted,
12 needed before he asked for things, and quick 13 witted. He liked women that were witty and 14 knew what to say and when to say it, I 15 guess.

16 Q. Which women did you see interact 17 with the Governor in the ways that you
18 described?

19 A. Melissa DeRosa, Stephanie 20 Benton, his briefers. You know, I observed 21 Lindsey Boylan with him on a couple of 22 occasions and she fit that bill. [REDACTED]
23 too. You know, [REDACTED] was older, but she 24 knew how to handle him and make him happy.
25 So those are just a few.

1 Confidential

2 Q. Did you observe anything in 3 terms of how the Governor interacted with 4 men?

5 A. Yes. It was different. It was 6 more tense, loud, volatile, the use of curse
7 words. So, yeah, it was markedly different.

8 But certainly the women
9 observed -- observed it, were around it. It
10 was not like he was hiding that behavior
11 from senior women in his administration. I 12 was just -- and it wasn't just men. It was 13 like if you didn't fit the bill of -- you 14 know, I think [REDACTED] was one of -- I think she 15 was treated the same way as some of the men.
16 And [REDACTED], I can't remember her last name,
17 she was like [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. She was privy 18 to some of that type of vitriol.

19 Q. You said privy to it. Was she 20 subject to any of it?

21 A. I think so. She kind of 22 traveled in that kind of cohort of people,
23 so I would -- I would have -- and she wasn't 24 there for a long time, so I wouldn't be 25 surprised if she was treated differently

1 Confidential

2 than some of the other women, but that would 3 be just speculation.

4 Q. How did the Governor address you
5 when he spoke to you?

6 A. He called me "sweetheart" or 7 like "darling." I don't recall him ever 8 uttering my name. I think maybe he called 9 me Miss Liss like once.

10 Q. And what did you think about the 11 way that the Governor addressed you?

12 A. It was demeaning, but I also 13 felt that I wasn't worthy of his respect.
14 Like I didn't think, oh, he should be 15 calling me "Ana" and I'm going to go
16 complain. I thought I was like a nobody 17 anyways, and I thought, well, you should be 18 so fortunate that at least he thinks you're 19 cute enough to kiss you on the cheek and 20 like he wanted to be photographed with you 21 and stuff like that.

22 Q. What is the reason he thought 23 you were a nobody?

24 A. Because of the types of 25 assignments I was being granted, because I

Confidential

1 was from Rochester and everybody there
2 seemed to be from like Downstate, and I
3 remember hearing people making fun of [REDACTED] 4 [REDACTED] accent and people making -- it was 5 pretty clear to me after entering the 6 administration that like even though on the 7 outside it was like let's make upstate
8 thrive again or whatever, internally it 9 was -- upstate residents were seen as 10 "nobodies," like not a source of power or 11 wealth or not to be taken seriously
12 necessarily, unless you were one of the five 13 billionaires from upstate New York.

14 So I believed I was -- I got 15 where I was by the hair of my 16 chinny-chin-chin, like I was just a good 17 looking young woman, who just happened to be 18 articulate enough to make it into that 19 Fellowship program and articulate enough 20 like get noticed and get elevated to that 21 office and I better sit tight and shut up 22 and survive so that I could keep my job or 23 else they'll find out that I'm just like 24 middle-class person from Rochester, New 25

1 Confidential

2 York.

3 And maybe that was my own
4 preconceived notions, but I certainly picked 5 up -- you know, the zeitgeist there
6 was -- you know, you knew who was important 7 by who was getting meetings with the 8 Governor and which lobbyists got attention, 9 and it was all representatives with special 10 interests in Manhattan, real estate, like 11 the Real Estate Board of New York, banks, 12 you know, hospital systems. Any way that 13 was connected to money and power, 14 particularly from New York, was getting an 15 audience there. And so I -- by my own 16 estimations and those observations, I was 17 like, well, don't -- don't let on who you 18 are, Ana, because they don't need you here.

19 Q. Did you ever have any 20 discussions with the Governor about the work
21 you were doing at the Chamber?

22 A. No.

23 Q. Did you have any discussions
24 with the Governor about your professional 25 background?

1 Confidential

2 A. No, never. It was very clear
3 that unless he asked you a question, you
4 weren't to like volunteer information.

5 Q. How was that clear?

6 A. I don't know that it was 7 expressly communicated to me by anybody
8 besides [REDACTED], but, you know, you just 9 don't walk up to Governor Cuomo and say, 10 hey, how it's going? You let him come to 11 you, ask you questions and then go on his 12 merry way. I wasn't about to be like 13 Governor, Governor, do you have a second, I 14 want to talk you about my background and 15 what I'm doing here and I have this idea.
16 That was not a welcome -- that was not a 17 welcome gesture. I would not have 18 been -- that would not have been greeted 19 with warmth or approval.

20 Q. Did you have any views of how 21 the Governor perceived you?

22 A. Yes. I felt that the Governor
23 thought that I was an attractive young blond 24 women who was, you know, sweet. That's all 25 that I believed he -- like that was his

1 Confidential

2 estimation of me.

3 Q. What is the reason you felt that 4 was the Governor's estimation of you?

5 A. Because our interactions were 6 more on the grandfatherly flirtatious side
7 of things, and because he at the 2014 budget
8 celebration party at the mansion, he came 9 over to me and gestured, he brought his 10 photographer over, and he put his hand
11 around my waist and kissed me on the cheek
12 and had a photo taken with me. And then 13 people, you know, were talking about it the 14 next day, like, oh, I heard about the 15 Governor and the photo.

16 And I remember like when like 17 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was handing out the photos a 18 couple of days later, everybody wanted to 19 like look at the picture of me and the 20 Governor. And like that's not something 21 that he would ordinarily do with anybody on 22 my level 'cause I was just like basically 23 checking people's coats at that party, and 24 he came right over to me, and, you know, it 25 was, again, like wherever the Governor goes,

1 Confidential

2 that's where all the eyeballs are, and then 3 all of a sudden the eyeballs were on me and 4 I felt special and important, but I felt 5 special and important because the Governor
6 thought I was food.

7 Q. Do you need a minute?

8 A. Do I need a minute?

9 Q. Yes.

10 A. Umm, I'm okay.

11 Q. Okay. Did you have any 12 work-related interactions with the Governor?

13 A. No -- well, one very small one.
14 When I -- when Howard Glaser had me at his 15 PowerPoint presentation for the Crain's
16 New York business breakfast in late -- I 17 think it was -- maybe it was early 2014, the 18 Governor wanted to give it final sign-off,
19 and he said something to Stephanie, like I 20 need a copy of this presentation, and then 21 Stephanie said it to [REDACTED] and then 22 [REDACTED] said it to me, and then I had to 23 present it off for the Governor and then I
24 had to hand it to him, and I remember 25 handing it to him in his -- like the conference room that's attached to his office, and I remember he said thank you and he looked me up and down, and I remember I had a run in my pantyhose and he looked right at my run in my pantyhose and thought that that was because -- I thought it was like, oh, my God, I'm such a slob, I had a run in my pantyhose and the Governor noticed it. That was literally the one time.

Other than like staffing mansion parties or staffing events where the Governor was speaking, like the State of the State or whatever and like playing kind of generic roles there. But the only time I ever directly had a professional interaction with the Governor was like handing him a PowerPoint presentation printout.

Q. How did he look at you?

A. Like he was just sizing me up, like up and down. He was in serious mode, so he wasn't like in flirtatious mode at that moment in time much, I remember. He was just looking me up and down. I made eye contact, and I remember he looked at the

2 little snag, run in my -- I was wearing 3 black tights and -- and then he looked at 4 me, and I remember, oh, crap, he looked 5 at -- he noticed my run in my pantyhose.

6 Q. You used the phrase
7 "grandfatherly flirtatious" at least a 8 couple of times. What do you mean by that?

9 A. I mean by that -- I mean that I
10 didn't take it as a sexual come-on, but it 11 was very clear that he thought that I was 12 cute and attractive and that I would welcome 13 a smooch on the hand or the cheek or a slip 14 of the hand around the waist. I call it 15 "grandfatherly" because I didn't look at the 16 Governor as a sexual being, but I believe, 17 you know, he saw me as a sexual being. And 18 maybe "grandfatherly" is a way for me to 19 describe -- like I had creepy, older men 20 treat me that in other aspects of my life;
21 like, oh, hello, sweetheart, hi, honey.
22 It's a generational thing, I guess. So 23 that's why I call it "grandfatherly 24 flirtation."

25 Q. Let's talk about your

1 Confidential

2 interactions with the Governor outside the 3 office. You've mentioned the budget party.
4 Did you have any other interactions with the 5 Governor outside the office?

6 A. Just at those parties. Not in 7 any informal setting.

8 Q. Which parties are you referring 9 to?

10 A. They were -- the budget
11 celebrations, there was the pinning ceremony 12 that I participated in, there was a Father's 13 Day party that took place on his father's 14 birthday, the year that Mario passed away, 15 that was at the mansion, there was a Puerto 16 Rican association in New York State that had 17 a political party at the mansion that he 18 attended. So official soirees like that.
19 Most of them at the mansion, a couple of 20 them happening like -- like the Regional 21 Economic Development Council post reception
22 happened somewhere near The Egg in Albany, 23 so --

24 Q. Did you --

25 A. Yeah, sorry.

1 Confidential

2 Q. No, please go ahead.

3 A. No, that was it. That was it.

4 Q. Did you ever travel with the 5 Governor?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Who invited you to the soirees
8 and events that you just described?

9 A. I don't really know. I
10 just -- somehow my name would land on lists 11 for specific things, and then I would get an 12 official e-mail invitation and an RSVP, and 13 only certain people would get them for 14 certain parties and functions. I think it 15 was the Governor's advance team and they 16 received direction from certain people on 17 the Governor's team, whether Stephanie or 18 Joe or someone at the time, and they would 19 say, this person, this person, this person,
20 this person, and some of them I got invited 21 to, you know, other fellows weren't there,
22 some of them I did and like all the fellows 23 were there.

24 Q. Did you have any understand of 25 the reasons why you were invited to those

1 Confidential

2 parties and events?

3 A. No.

4 Q. Setting aside the budget party, 5 did you ever have any physical contact with 6 the Governor at these events and soirees?

7 A. Yeah, where -- whenever he would 8 greet me, he would hug and kiss me. And a 9 couple of instances that was on -- that was 10 captured in photographs, which I -- my 11 attorneys shared with you guys.

12 Q. And where would he kiss you?

13 A. On the cheek.

14 Q. Would the Governor say anything 15 to you at these events and soirees where he 16 would hug and kiss you on the cheek?

17 A. Just exchange pleasantries, how 18 are you this evening, you look lovely, stuff 19 like that. Nothing of any substance.

20 Q. How did he address you?

21 A. Just "darling" or "sweetheart."
22 He didn't -- I don't know if he knew or 23 remembered my name.

24 Q. Turning back to the budget party
25 before -- when was the budget party that you

1 Confidential

2 mentioned earlier?

3 A. It was like late March 2014.
4 The budget had passed on time, I think,
5 prior to the April 1st deadline, which is 6 why there was a party.

7 Q. You just said "March." Is that 8 correct, was the party in March 2014?

9 A. Yes, I believe so. The date
10 stamp on the photo says the date on it.
11 There's a record of the party. It was 12 called the "Grand Slam" because they had 13 passed four consecutive on-time budgets and 14 they were having a party to commemorate that 15 that budget had passed on time and it was 16 the fourth.

17 Q. And when did the budget pass?

18 A. Before the April 1st deadline
19 that year. I don't know what day
20 specifically.

21 Q. But the party happened in March?

22 A. I believe so, yeah. I can -- I 23 have the photo with me. I can look at the 24 date stamp on the back.

25 Q. Why don't you do that.

1 Confidential

2 A. Okay. This is the photo
3 (indicating).

4 Q. Okay.

5 MS. PARK: Abena, if we have a
6 copy of the photo in the binder, can 7 we mark it as an exhibit?

8 MS. MAINOO: Yes.

9 A. The date says -- oh, I
10 apologize. I'm sorry. It says May 8, 2014.

11 Q. Okay. And so this is Tab 7, and 12 it's also in your electronic exhibits, and 13 we will mark it as an exhibit and put it up.

14 A. Great.

15 (Exhibit 4, photograph, Tab 7, 16 marked for identification, as of this
17 date.)

18 A. Yeah, so the budget passed on 19 time that year, and they must -- they had a 20 party in early May to celebrate that the 21 budget passed and that it was the fourth 22 consecutive.

23 Q. Before the May 2014 party, had 24 you ever taken a picture with the Governor?

25 A. No.

1 Confidential

2 Q. Had you wanted to take a picture
3 with the Governor before that time?

4 A. I mean, yes, I guess that 5 would -- I wanted there to be evidence that 6 I wasn't just saying that I worked for the 7 Governor's Office. There's visible evidence
8 that I worked there.

9 Q. So do you recognize this exhibit 10 as the photo you took with the Governor at 11 the May 2014 budget party?

12 A. Um-hum.

13 Q. I think --

14 A. And he has his hand on my waist
15 too. You can see lower down, umm --

16 Q. His hand?

17 A. Yeah.

18 Q. Okay. And you still have this 19 picture, right?

20 A. Um-hum.

21 Q. What does the picture mean to 22 you?

23 A. Well, it meant something -- it
24 meant something else up until like March of 25 this year, I guess. It was like evidence that I worked for the Governor's Office, that I didn't just -- I wasn't just there pushing paper working for someone else, but that I actually was in his -- that I was around him and adjacent to him, and I was proud of that. But [REDACTED]

Confidential

[REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and it was very much because of my job.

And it wasn't until some of this broader dialogue started percolating from other women about their time working there and how toxic it was, and I decided to give oxygen to some of like what I had experienced, and the picture took on a different meaning.

Like when I spoke to the Wall Street Journal, I wasn't expecting for them to like want to talk about that or ask about it, and then all of a sudden it became like this centerpiece to the story. So it's complicated. You know, I still have it.
You know, I'm not going to burn it or anything, but -- and I don't think that the Governor was trying to like rape me in that picture, that he was like grasping a breast or something. But he came up to me, he wanted that picture taken, it got a lot of attention from senior staff and officials, and I remember feeling special in that moment and then subsequent to that moment.

Confidential

Q. What meaning did the picture take on after March of 2021?

A. It became embarrassing, like a piece of evidence. I treated it up until that point like it was almost as important as one of my diplomas hanging in my office. I have it sitting next to my certificate of completion for my Fellowship, the Rockefeller Institute Fellowship Program, and then all of a sudden it became like on Twitter. All these people were reacting to it, like, well, if you felt like you were being abused and targeted by the Governor, then why do you still have a framed photo of him in your office? Which was offensive. I also -- you know, it's a reminder that even

1 Confidential

2 though that chapter of my life meant a great
3 deal to me, it was also a really awful time
4 for me.

5 And I'm sure the Governor
6 doesn't remember taking that picture. The 7 Governor doesn't remember who I am, you 8 know.

9 I don't know, I feel like -- I 10 feel kind of torn, like I should probably 11 recycle it or put it in a box somewhere, but 12 I also am not at a point in my life where 13 I'm willing to discount the two years I 14 spent working there because I still ascribe 15 value to it. I don't know. It's 16 complicated.

17 Q. And you pointed out that the 18 Governor's hand was around your waist in 19 that picture. What's the reason you pointed 20 that out?

21 A. A guy that I was dating at the 22 time, I remember I showed it to him, and was 23 like, wow, hey, look at this, and he's like 24 that's crazy what is his hand doing there,
25 that's weird. And I was like, oh, yeah.

1 Confidential

2 And, you know, that was -- I remember
3 feeling his hand there on my, you know, 4 lower waist. You know, typically an 5 appropriate gesture would be put your hand
6 on someone's back. So it's -- it appears 7 sexual, I guess, in a way.

8 And also when I spoke to Jimmy
9 at the Wall Street Journal and I showed him 10 the picture, his eyes went right there too.
11 And I wish instead of looking right there, 12 you know, you're like, oh, wow, look how 13 important Ana is, she's with the Governor, 14 but it's like it looks a little bit more 15 familiar than that. You know, it looks less 16 professional and more intimate.

17 Q. And you mentioned that 18 colleagues spoke about the picture
19 afterwards. What did they say?

20 A. I remember [REDACTED] came up to me
21 the next day, [REDACTED] [REDACTED], and was like I 22 heard about your moment with the Governor
23 last night, you know, people are talking 24 about it. And [REDACTED] said something like, 25 oh, we know he likes you, something like

1 Confidential

2 that. You know, I can't recall exactly what 3 people said. Just that I felt like, you 4 know, how you -- like something happens that 5 becomes the subject of some idle gossip and 6 you're a part of it and then become fodder
7 for other people's conversations. I felt 8 like I was being talked about by people that 9 I didn't know.

10 Q. And how did you feel about that?

11 A. Like sort of icky because it
12 sucked that I was nominally there on this 13 Fellowship that was supposed to be 14 recognizing my intellect and my credentials
15 and I was supposed to be influencing policy 16 according to this Fellowship program, but 17 then like in practice, I was eye candy, and 18 the only significant thing that had happened
19 thus far while I was there that was worthy 20 of anyone's attention was that the Governor
21 thought I was cute and took a picture of me
22 at the mansion. I just remember thinking
23 like ehh. But I didn't feel icky enough
24 where I was going to trash the photo. I 25 remember making it my LinkedIn picture at

1 Confidential

2 one point because I was proud.

3 Q. Talk about other communications
4 with the Governor. Did the Governor ever 5 yell at you?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Did you the Governor ever curse
8 at you?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Did the Governor ever comment on 11 your appearance?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What did he say?

14 A. He said that -- that I -- that I
15 looked lovely, you look lovely today,
16 something along those lines.

17 Q. Where did that happen?

18 A. In the office, and then, you 19 know, at the Father's Day party, I think he 20 said something. He introduced me to [REDACTED]
21 [REDACTED] at the Father's Day party.

22 Q. How did he introduce you?

23 A. I had to kind of intro -- he -- 24 I -- I don't know exactly how, like if he 25 used my name or what. But I remember

1 Confidential

2 telling [REDACTED] that I worked with [REDACTED]
3 [REDACTED], and I remember him saying something 4 like -- because I was wearing a dress, a 5 pretty dress, and he was like you look 6 lovely or something like that.

7 Q. And did he say that in front of 8 [REDACTED] [REDACTED]?

9 A. Yeah, I think so. Like 10 you -- or maybe it was like you look nice.
11 It didn't feel like he was coming on to me
12 or like it was overtly sexual. Like it 13 didn't feel like it was inappropriate for 14 him to say it in front of someone that he 15 was in a romantic relationship with. Like 16 he was talking to me like I was a little 17 girl almost.

18 Q. And do you remember if you
19 approached the Governor and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] or 20 they approached you or how that interaction 21 came about?

22 A. He approached me with [REDACTED]. I
23 was positioned -- I was kind of ushering
24 party attendees from like the cocktail area 25 over to a tent where folks are supposed to

Confidential

2 be seated for -- there was going to be like
3 a video that was commemorating Mario Cuomo's 4 life and his time as Governor, and that was 5 when the Governor approached, when I was in 6 that -- I was supposed to -- I was like near 7 a set a stairs, and I was like, you know,
8 please, please, this way, this way, have a 9 seat, you know, one of those types of roles.

10 Q. Did the Governor ever ask you to 11 sing a song or jingle?

12 A. He -- he didn't ask me, 13 but -- well, he would sing the song for 14 Riunite on ice, and I think he asked if I 15 knew the rest of the words or something, and 16 I remember looking it up and writing it down 17 so that if it came up again I would know the 18 words. It's like a malt beverage.

19 Q. Other than that, do you ever
20 remember any instances where you would sing
21 with the Governor or be invited to sing with 22 the Governor?

23 A. Besides Riunite on ice, not 24 really, no.

25 Q. Did you sing that song with the

1 Confidential

2 Governor?

3 A. I think I said a few bars, but 4 that was it, yeah. I really didn't want to 5 embarrass myself necessarily.

6 Q. Did you ever hear or hear about 7 the Governor telling jokes of a sexual 8 nature?

9 A. Umm. I have to think about that 10 for one second. Umm, jokes of a sexual 11 nature? No, I don't know -- I don't have 12 direct knowledge that he made jokes that 13 were sexual in nature. I just knew 14 that -- that they were known -- he and the 15 men that were in his immediate surroundings 16 and some of the women too, that that was 17 commonplace, you know, that they would speak 18 on people's appearances. So I wouldn't be 19 surprised if there was jokes -- there were 20 jokes being made of a sexual nature. I just 21 didn't hear them directly.

22 Q. Did you ever hear or hear about
23 the Governor making comments about the size 24 of his hands?

25 A. No, but I knew he did do that.

Confidential

2 I heard that through -- you know, prior to 3 the allegations that were made by one of the 4 other accusers. I learned something about 5 that through members of the crew. Like he 6 had made a comment to like one of the 7 briefers or something that he likes the fact 8 that he had big hands. So when I read about 9 it recently, I wasn't surprised, but I never 10 heard him speak to that.

11 Q. When did you hear about that 12 prior to the allegations?

13 A. It would have been in like 2014
14 or 2015.

15 Q. Did you ever hear or hear about 16 the Governor talking about sex?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Did the Governor ever 19 proposition you for sex?

20 A. No.

21 Q. Earlier you had talked about how 22 you thought your currency was what you
23 looked like. Did you adjust your behavior 24 or do anything based on your thought that 25 your currency was what you looked like?

1 Confidential

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. What?

4 A. I made myself look more
5 attractive or such that I felt more 6 attractive by buying clothes that 7 were -- you know, dresses that were, you
8 know, high quality, that were somewhat 9 revealing, getting my hair done, doing my 10 makeup, wearing heels. Like I purchased a 11 lot of heels in different colors because I 12 understood -- I knew it to be a fact that 13 the Governor had an eye for sartorial, you
14 know, fashion. So you just couldn't wear 15 anything. You sort of had to be dressed in 16 a certain way, you know, wearing higher 17 quality fabrics or designers and stuff like 18 that. So I spent more money on my 19 appearance and my work wardrobe.

20 Q. What was the intent behind doing 21 those things?

22 A. To remain in -- to be seen as 23 a -- to be attractive so that I could stay 24 where I was and continue to succeed in the 25 workplace environment. I guess I -- it was

1 Confidential

2 my understanding that by being good looking 3 I could advance in my career there, and I
4 didn't want to go in the opposite direction 5 necessarily. It just felt like the price of 6 admission. Like you want to succeed here,
7 you want to succeed here, you want to thrive
8 here and survive, you need to look the part.

9 Q. What did you mean when you said
10 you didn't want to go the opposite way?

11 A. You know, by chopping my hair
12 off or wearing flats and pants, and -- you
13 know -- you know, there's some part of me 14 that, you know, even though it's 15 uncomfortable to dress up every day, and it 16 takes time, I felt that it was the price of 17 admission.

18 And it also gave me some 19 confidence, like people's eyes are on me 20 because I look good, and when their eyes on 21 me because I look good, then I will be given 22 assignments and work to do that is of some 23 import and I will be placed in -- like 24 because it worked with -- early on with 25 Howard and it would continue -- it worked

1 Confidential

2 getting me invited to parties and getting me
3 invited to things where I could represent 4 the Governor's Office in public events, you 5 know, taking people to their seats at the 6 State of the State, stuff like that. Like I
7 wasn't passed over for stuff, I was noticed.

8 Q. Was the thinking that looking 9 good would ultimately lead to more
10 responsibilities and more substantive work?

11 A. Yeah, that was my calculus in my 12 head.

13 Q. What was that calculus based on?

14 A. Based on what I saw around me,
15 women that had risen up through the ranks.
16 You know, it wasn't because they had some 17 prestigious law degree or something. It was 18 because they were beautiful. They were 19 beautiful and also had other complimentary 20 qualities and characteristics that the 21 Governor found attractive, that quick 22 wittedness and smarts.

23 Q. Earlier you mentioned you knew a 24 lot of people who were subject to the 25 Governor's abuse. What did you mean by

1 Confidential

2 that?

3 A. I meant that I knew secondarily
4 through colleagues that the Governor had a 5 volatile, angry, short-tempered side to him
6 and that he would take out his frustrations
7 and his anger on certain people, 8 particularly men, and he was known to be in 9 contact with some of these staff members at 10 all hours. He could be verbally abusive, I 11 believe. I don't know anybody that had 12 risen through the ranks that, you know,
13 thought the Governor was like a nice, kind 14 man. Everybody seemed to be afraid of him,
15 and I was afraid of him too, but he -- I 16 wasn't subject to that. I just observed the 17 dynamic and I heard about it through the 18 office grapevine.

19 Q. How did you interpret the 20 Governor's expectation that certain people
21 would be available to him at all hours?

22 A. I observed it first and foremost
23 through [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] made it 24 clear that, you know, he slept with his 25 BlackBerry. He was always at work. He made

Confidential

2 references to -- you know, like when I had 3 these friendly interactions with the 4 Governor, and I would be like, oh, you know,
5 yeah, he's so nice or he was so friendly,
6 like [REDACTED] kind of making comments, like, 7 yeah, that's what he wants you to think or 8 something. I remember hearing his voice
9 projecting on speakerphone in Howard 10 Glaser's office, like loud yelling at 11 people. So I knew that there was this 12 predominant side of him that was mean and 13 angry and mistrusting and calculating.

14 And the work of the office was 15 being done by these trusted people that were 16 subject to his abuse and his tirades, you 17 know, in exchange for the knowledge that 18 like they would get plum jobs afterwards.
19 You know, like [REDACTED] got to run Center for 20 Economic Growth and some people had got some 21 pretty sweet lobbying gigs and working for 22 tech companies and big fat salaries because 23 of their connections working for [REDACTED] So 24 -- so you put 25 up -- put up with the abuse knowing that you

1 Confidential

2 have a golden ticket.

3 Q. How did you understand that 4 people would put up with the abuse with the 5 expectation that they would have this golden 6 ticket?

7 A. How did I interpret it or --

8 Q. How did you know that?

9 A. Just observations like seeing,
10 you know, through the time that I was there,
11 people would leave when the time was right, 12 when they had like asked permission, been 13 granted a certain opportunity. Like, for 14 instance, when Howard Glaser left to get a 15 nice gig, you know, lobbying, [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
16 got a similar fat salary doing a 17 lobbying -- getting a lobbying job because,
18 you know, they had done their time. I 19 learned through -- like [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was 20 very much a loose cannon and would talk shop 21 all the time in the office about kind of how 22 things work around here. You know, I
23 learned that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] story early 24 on. I knew that [REDACTED] had a long game that 25 he was playing and he wasn't planning on

1 Confidential

2 killing himself working there his whole 3 career. He was like in his late 30s, and 4 you know, I knew that he was angling for 5 something and there was a carrot dangling
6 for him at some point.

7 There was a good deal of, you
8 know, turnover that started happening, you 9 know, early, middle the second term and has 10 continued to this day. And a lot of the 11 turnover was, you know, people getting 12 better jobs, leveraging their time there to 13 get better jobs, and then him replacing him 14 with other people who could be put through 15 the meat grinder. A lot of the people that 16 I worked with when I was there are no longer 17 there.

18 Q. Did you know about anyone
19 getting tech jobs after their time -- doing
20 their time at the Chamber?

21 A. I think [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
22 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
23 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] or 24 something, and -- yeah, he's [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
25 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. He got that

1 Confidential

2 job through those guys, through that team.

3 [REDACTED] was a big collector of Cuomo people 4 because like the fight that they had to 5 engage in to get approval in upstate
6 New York. And I know there's -- most of the 7 people that were there that were high up
8 when I was there are not really there 9 anymore.

10 Q. Do you know if the 11 administration had a hand in these former 12 Chamber employees' ability to secure
13 positions after they left the Chamber?

14 A. Oh, yes, yeah.

15 Q. How so, how did the Chamber have 16 a hand in that?

17 A. They could make calls -- when I 18 was there, Joe Percoco was very much an 19 arbiter of that quid pro quo. They could 20 make a call and get you a job if you 21 were -- if you -- if you had served your 22 time. Like Josh Vlasto is one of them, who 23 was chief of staff to the Governor for a 24 while, and now he has a fat job in corporate 25 communications. Annabel Walsh was like a glorified secretary, and she's in some health tech gig now.

          [REDACTED] got a job working for the Governor through his parents. He became like one of the Governor's body men and he was sort of a gossip collector. He was like -- I remember I learned through [REDACTED] and some other people that [REDACTED] would skulk around the Chamber and get gossip on who's doing what to whom, who's dating whom, because the Governor liked hearing the gossip. And now [REDACTED] is in the tech industry. He's a public affairs job and it's for a tech company. All pretty much based in New York City.

          And it was -- you know, it was clear, you stick it out and you can get a really great parachute six figure job. And I opted to take a different route because I couldn't -- for my own sanity, I couldn't stay there anymore.

Q.       You used the term "quid pro quo" when you were talking about Joe Percoco acting as an arbiter. What did you mean by

1 Confidential

2 that?

3 A. Well, it was -- it was an 4 unspoken rule that you can't just -- you
5 can't just leave on your own accord, you 6 have to do your time and whenever they're 7 done with you, you can -- at what time like 8 that you feel comfort -- like you feel that 9 you've done your time, you could have a 10 conversation and see what they could do for 11 you.

12 And the first that I learned of 13 that dynamic was through the [REDACTED]
14 [REDACTED] situation, and I just remember
15 hearing through the grapevine like, you
16 know, if you wanted to get out and go do X, 17 Y or Z, you got to go talk to him.

18 And I don't know who replaced 19 him in the chain of command after he was 20 like arrested and everything, but -- that 21 was just -- it was common knowledge that 22 that was -- that was rule. You put up with 23 it and then they will find -- they will find 24 a place for you when the time is right.

25 And that happened with [REDACTED]

1 Confidential

2 [REDACTED], that happened with, you know, [REDACTED]
3 [REDACTED] and with many of the briefers. You 4 know, they go through two years of really 5 grueling work and they might get like a 6 nice, plush gig somewhere.

7 Q. Did you know if any of those 8 former Chamber employees maintained their 9 ties or relationships to the Chamber after 10 they left?

11 A. Oh, yeah, definitely. Like I
12 know, for instance, Sr. Staffer #3, she bore 13 witness to things that no one will ever find 14 out about that very much probably were 15 illegal and she'll never talk about it 16 because she has a great job and she got that 17 job through the Governor's Office. And I 18 know through -- I know through -- because
19 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
20 he divulged to me that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
21 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
22 involving the Governor. And I know that 23 she's been pursued by the news media and she 24 won't speak out. And that's just one 25 example. But, you know, a lot of these

1 Confidential

2 people they just have great jobs and they're 3 going to lose their job or they might lose 4 their job if they speak out against the 5 Governor.

6 I didn't think -- early on I
7 thought I was doing the right thing and like 8 I was speaking truth to power and speaking 9 out in support of other women that made a 10 brave decision, and then I started even in 11 my job to pay a professional price. Like 12 I'm no longer invited to functions in the 13 Rochester area that involve the Governor's 14 Office, even though my job is very much 15 pertinent to that.

16 Like Monroe County has 17 incentivized projects that also received 18 economic incentives from the State, and 19 there have been a couple of occasions with 20 like ribbon cuttings or tours or whatnot,
21 after March of this year where I spoke out,
22 where I would have ordinarily been invited,
23 and I have not been invited. I'm not -- 24 I've not been directly communicated with by 25 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] or anybody in the Governor's

1 Confidential

2 Office or anybody at Empire State
3 Development. And it's my understanding
4 having worked in the Governor's Office, like 5 they do -- they do ice people out. There 6 are people that the Governor refuses to - 7 not only himself to be in the same room with 8 or be adjacent to at all, but like anybody 9 that is anywhere adjacent to him. So if 10 like Kathy Hochul comes to Rochester, I 11 won't get invited now.

12 So if I'm paying a professional 13 price, you know, not having gotten my job
14 through the Governor's Office, I can imagine 15 that there are individuals that have these 16 great jobs that they got through the second 17 floor connections, you know, and they're 18 worried if they were to say something, they 19 would lose their job or pay other prices.

20 There was a time in the last 21 couple of months where I thought I might 22 have to move to another state.

23 Q. What is the reason you might 24 have to move to another state?

25 A. Because the Governor remained so

1 Confidential

2 powerful here and he's not -- he's gone so 3 far as to not only just hang onto his 4 position and, you know, not walk away, but 5 he's completely denied that any of this 6 stuff has happened, and I wouldn't be 7 surprised if like none of this amounts to 8 anything, and there are no term limits on 9 his office, and, you know, he could remain 10 in power for a very long time.

11 And I intentionally got into an 12 economic development career. Economic 13 development is very tied in with local and 14 state government and with politics. My job 15 right now that I have is somewhat political 16 in nature, and it could all go to shit 17 if -- pardon my French, if, you know, he 18 continues to remain powerful and rise up in 19 positions of power. And, you know, I
20 just -- I'm scared.

21 So I've started recently trying 22 to -- I'm pursuing a professional 23 certification in economic development just 24 in case like I do have to get a job
25 somewhere else someday, like a credential

Confidential

that can get me a job anywhere in the country in Economic Development and I'm not just beholden to my professional connections in New York State because that could go away, poof.

So all that being said, as someone not coming out that the Governor grabbed my breast or propositioned me for sex, as someone who is not in a job that I got through the second floor, I myself am experiencing what I have determined to be some professional consequences, so I can only imagine what somebody like someone like an [REDACTED] [REDACTED] or an Senior Staffer #3 [REDACTED] or a [REDACTED], what they would be subject to, like what consequences they would be subject to if they were to say anything.

But they were all part of the problem, I think, so I don't know that any of them would ever feel like they had to say anything. They all witnessed things that were certainly problematic, but they were all part of the problem in propagating that environment, the bullying and the ad

2 hominem, the packs and stuff like that.

3 Q. Are there other ways in which 4 you have paid a professional price for 5 speaking out in addition to what you've 6 described?

7 A. Well, you know, if you Google my 8 name now, it's inevitably all about Andrew 9 Cuomo now, and people have been, you know,
10 looking at my LinkedIn profile from all 11 corners of the earth. So I think 12 reputationally (sic) it has been 13 problematic. I suppose that's an indirect 14 consequence. And just harassment on social 15 media. People calling me a liar, that I'm 16 looking for attention and that I'm -- I'm 17 doing this to raise my own profile or 18 whatever. And I view those as negative.
19 Whether they're true or not, there are folks
20 in the world that will believe those claims 21 to be true, and -- but, you know, I sort
22 of -- I knew going into this whole
23 experience that that might be an outcome.

24 But by and large the 25 professional price that I paid is before

Confidential

March of this year I was asked to attend ribbon cutting ceremonies and facility tours and groundbreaking ceremonies and meetings having to do with the Governor's Office and Empire State Development, and now I'm being iced out. And I've been keeping some record of some of that just knowing when certain things are happening.

Like, for instance, the most recent Executive Committee session of the Finger Lakes Regional Economic Development Council, like I'm part of that group, but I was asked not to appear on camera or like not be part of the Zoom, but just like watch it like I was a webinar attendee. And I was informed by [REDACTED] [REDACTED] office that they were asking a few other people to do that. But I was like but why me, though. It just felt like I'm being -- it feels like I'm being singled out.

Q. Is that who asked you to participate by webinar, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] office?

A. Yes, it was [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

Confidential

2 [REDACTED]. And I remember almost drafting an 3 e-mail like asking him why have you selected
4 me to be one of these people, can you 5 explain. And I almost like in a fit of 6 paranoia I was going to ask him is it
7 because the thing with the Governor, but I 8 didn't.

9 And then, you know, there was 10 another event where the State has given a 11 bunch of money to the Rochester area for a 12 riverfront revitalization initiative that 13 involves one of our museums and some hotels,
14 and a good chunk of the project my team
15 helped support through some tax incentives,
16 and they had this big, exciting
17 ribbon-cutting ceremony, and everybody
18 involved in the economic development
19 community was there, and Kathy Hochul went 20 and spoke, and I was not invited.

21 And Kathy Hochul came to town
22 and did a tour at Bausch & Lomb's
23 manufacturing facility, another project that 24 we were involved in involving our 25 Congressman Joe Morelle, who's very plugged

1 Confidential

2 in still with Andrew Cuomo's Office, and I
3 was not included.

4 And I haven't said anything to 5 my boss. You know, I'm still scared that if 6 I continue to make noise, it will just make 7 it worse.

8 Q. What is the reason you're scared
9 that if you keep making noise, it will keep 10 getting worse?

11 A. Because the people in positions
12 of power here in this region are still by 13 and large very much connected to the power
14 structure that Andrew Cuomo has created. So 15 when he became Governor, you know, Joe 16 Morelle, who is very powerful here, rose to 17 prominence in the Assembly and became the 18 Assembly speaker, and members of Joe 19 Morelle's staff were elevated and hired to 20 work for Andrew Cuomo, one of them being 21 [REDACTED], [REDACTED] was one of 22 them, and then my boss, Adam Bello, who is 23 our County Executive, he was an acolyte of 24 Joe Morelle and thus connected to that whole 25 house of cards.

Confidential

2 And it's like the bread crumb
3 trail always leads back to him, and Andrew
4 Cuomo is known as like a kingmaker, and I
5 knew that I did the right thing by speaking 6 out and telling the truth about what was a 7 very dangerous place for me to work at the 8 time and what was problematic, and I felt 9 that the evidence that I was -- the story
10 that I was sharing, which is true, provided 11 some evidence to bolster the cases that were 12 being shared by other women.

13 You know, I wouldn't go back and 14 not do that. I wanted to fall on that side 15 of history, but in hindsight I didn't -- I 16 guess I expected in the wake of like ME2 and 17 everything, I expected there to be more 18 solidarity with the power structure. You
19 know, there were people that out of one side
20 of their mouth they called on the Governor 21 to resign, and on the other side of the 22 mouth they were still meeting with him and 23 supporting his agenda. So I guess I'm still 24 afraid, but again, I wouldn't have done
25 anything differently.

Confidential

2 Q. Earlier when you were talking
3 about people being in the Chamber and got 4 plush -- plum positions, you mentioned
5 Senior Staffer #3 [REDACTED], and you said [REDACTED]
6 divulged something to you about and Sr. Staffer #3
7 [REDACTED] What did [REDACTED] [REDACTED] divulge to you?

8 A. [REDACTED] told me that there was a 9 time he picked her up. So [REDACTED] was part of, 10 like I said, the younger crew. And so there 11 was a party at the Executive Mansion that I 12 think he staffed from like an operational 13 standpoint, and she was also there, and [REDACTED] 14 left at the appointed time when like most 15 people were leaving, but then there were 16 other people -- like I learned from [REDACTED] 17 there were pool parties that like the higher 18 level staff, the people like Sr. Staffer #3 or like 19 Sr. Staffer #1, you know, they got to stick around 20 and late night and they got to crash at the 21 mansion on occasion.

22 And [REDACTED] told me that there was 23 at least one occasion where he had to pick 24 her up from the Chamber -- or from the 25 Executive Mansion in the wee hours, at like

Confidential

2 a.m. or something, and that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and I remember being like, oh, my God, that's appalling, you know, why don't more people know about that crap. I don't think [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] but I don't have any reason to believe that [REDACTED] made that up.

Q. When did [REDACTED] tell you about
that?

A. He told me like last year.
We've stayed in touch. He works in [REDACTED] for like -- I think he works in the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], but he's originally from [REDACTED], so we'll get together every few months, you know, for a drink or something, and I remember him telling me that story and being like, oh, my God.

Q. Did he tell you that story before or after the public allegations started coming out?

A. It was after -- I think it was around like the holidays because it was after Lindsey first posted like a Tweet,

1 Confidential

2 Lindsey Boylan, and we were all sort of 3 talking about, oh, my God, what is she 4 talking about, what is she referring to.
5 And then there were murmurs in like the 6 community of alumni of, oh, did you hear 7 about this, did you hear about that or did 8 you hear about this, and that was one of the 9 the "oh, yeah, there were pool parties."

10 And I wasn't part of -- there
11 was like a cast system almost, and I wasn't 12 in that upper echelon of like staffers that 13 would have been invited, like come party at 14 the mansion until 2 o'clock in the morning.
15 I was in a lower level.

16 Q. Did [REDACTED] say anything about what 17 he thought happened with Sr. Staffer #3 that night?

18 A. He thinks that she got -- he 19 said that she was like angry at him and like 20 she wouldn't answer questions or something 21 and that that was -- maybe that was one of

22 [REDACTED],

24 [REDACTED].

25 Q. So --

1 Confidential

2 A. But based on what has been 3 divulged from young women publicly
4 who -- based on my experience working there, 5 we're working in the same environment, in 6 the same office where Senior Staffer #3 was, I 7 wouldn't be surprised if there were 8 similar -- there was a similar scenario.
9 She looked like those women.

10 When I was there and she was 11 there, I remember learning through [REDACTED] 12 that like she was like being groomed to be 13 the next Stephanie Benton or something, and 14 so she was in that office that was right 15 attached to the Governor's office. She 16 traveled with the Governor. She was with 17 him all the time.

18 Q. To be clear, [REDACTED] said he picked 19 Sr. Staffer #3 up from the mansion and not from any 20 other location?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. When you were in the Chamber,
23 did you hear or hear about the Governor
24 threatening anyone?

25 A. Threatening anyone? Umm, well,

Confidential

2 yeah, I mean, I remember him -- I remember 3 learning through senior staff that he 4 threatened the mayor of Syracuse at the 5 time, Stephanie Miner, like he was going to 6 withhold infrastructure dollars or something 7 because she was political, you know, she had 8 been calling him out, and that was very much 9 a threat.

10 And then I just -- I can speak
11 in general terms to the fact that like 12 favors were traded back and forth based on, 13 I don't know, like -- threats were 14 commonplace in that environment, and the 15 Governor could determine a municipality's
16 fortunes or an individual politician's 17 fortunes on a whim, but I wasn't -- I never 18 was in a room with him and he was directly 19 threatening someone or something. I can 20 only speak to that.

21 It was a very public thing that 22 ultimately ended up unfolding with the City
23 of Syracuse, but I remember hearing about it 24 and learning about it and being privy to 25 some of it before it became very public.

2 Q. Other than what you've talked 3 about, were you aware when you were at the 4 Chamber of any incidents of harassment,
5 bullying or other hostile or aggressive
6 behavior by the Governor?

7 A. Well, okay, so I know about in 8 the case of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] that he behaved 9 hostile towards him and did threaten bodily
10 harm to [REDACTED] when he like put the football 11 in his face, and the question was, you 12 know -- can you repeat the question again,
13 was I aware of any hostile behavior?

14 Q. Yes, it's says incidents of 15 harassment, bullying or other hostile or 16 aggressive behavior.

17 A. Yeah, yes. Towards [REDACTED] 18 [REDACTED] in particular and towards members of 19 the legislature.

20 Q. And what behavior are you aware 21 of?

22 A. Yelling and name calling, 23 withholding support, like withholding of 24 certain gestures, but again, I wasn't in the 25 room with him when he was like throwing

2 names or barbs at anybody or anything in 3 particular.

4 Q. Earlier when you were describing 5 the reasons you spoke up, you said the 6 Chamber was a dangerous place for you. What 7 did you mean by that?

8 A. I was a woman in my 20s who 9 didn't have family connections in the Albany
10 area or, you know, a network of friends. I 11 was really -- I moved there for the job
12 opportunity, and I -- so I felt like I 13 was -- I was somewhat vulnerable. I was,
14 you know, early/mid-career and naive and I
15 was -- I survived by -- I just have to think 16 about my response for a second. It was very 17 clear to me that being a young woman, being 18 an attractive young woman there meant two 19 things: It meant that I was a target for 20 unwanted communication and gestures and 21 attention and that I could also hitch my 22 fortunes to being an attractive woman and 23 get a better job out of it. Any 24 professional attention that I got there was 25 really I could assign it to what I looked like.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] It felt like it wasn't a place that was for the faint of heart, and particularly if you are the type of person who wants to enter a career in public service and follow an

4 to really succeed, and that's why I said it
5 was a dangerous place for young women.

6 Q. You mentioned being -- you used
7 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Did

When you worked at the Executive

2 Chamber, what impact did you think your 3 personal life and what happened in your 4 personal life could have on your 5 professional life and professional

7 A. Well, at first I didn't think it
8 would have any relevance, but I quickly 9 learned that you -- who you hang out with,
10 who you're romantically involved with is all 11 very -- it's all very much part of how 12 you're viewed in the workplace, and

And I had some of the fellows too, but it really -- it's hard to explain. I didn't really -- I wasn't really socializing with them as much.

Q. Is there a reason you were not socializing with the fellows as much?

A. Well, I think once I got pushed over to that other side of the second floor, I was made to feel as though I was like running in a different circle, and I noticed that they all started hanging out, weren't telling me when they were having get-togethers, and then I felt like they didn't really want to hang out with me, maybe because they thought that I thought that I was better than them or something. It was one of those weird social machinations, I guess, but I wished -- I wished that I would have viewed them as more of like a support network.

Q. Earlier you said the easiest way to survive, you were describing another

1 Confidential

2 survival mechanism, was not to get in 3 trouble, to look nice, be nice and do what I 4 was told. What did you mean by that?

5 A. The only way you would get in 6 trouble and that your professional situation
7 might be under threat is if you attract 8 negative attention to yourself. You attract 9 negative attention to yourself there by 10 screwing up or by being a slob, and so by 11 being docile, doing what I was told, not 12 speaking out of turn, not speaking unless 13 spoken to and also looking the part, the 14 only attention that I might attract to 15 myself is, oh, she's a nice, attractive
16 young lady and I wasn't going to get slammed
17 or screamed at or punished.

18 Q. You weren't going to get slammed 19 or screamed at or punished by who?

20 A. By -- well, at the time Joe 21 Percoco was like the punisher. I wasn't at 22 the level where the Governor himself might 23 have words with me that were punitive in 24 nature, but I just knew just working there 25 that like it wasn't that hard to screw up.

1 Confidential

2 You might be seen out and about 3 consorting with some staffer from some 4 legislator's office or you might -- it
5 might -- the Governor might catch wind that 6 you're talking about something that he 7 doesn't want you to talk about or, you know,
8 and I just didn't want to be -- I didn't 9 want to have any sort of target on my back.

10 Q. When you worked in the Executive 11 Chamber and you had the interactions that 12 you described with the Governor, including 13 where he would call you sweetheart or kiss
14 you on the cheeks or kiss your hand, did you 15 have any views at the time whether the 16 Governor's conduct was appropriate?

17 A. I knew and I believed that it
18 was technically not appropriate for a 19 workplace environment; however, I also knew 20 that we were working in a political 21 environment where certain rules just didn't 22 apply and I knew that --

23 I remember telling people at 24 home that, you know, wow, I didn't realize 25 that in order to like effectively govern the

Confidential

State of New York, you have to like skirt the law all the time, you have to make sure that certain things aren't in writing and ignore certain bureaucratic processes and push things through just to govern the State of New York, and just in the way that you sort of have to skirt the law to govern, you skirt the law to be a politician of his ilk.

Like even though on the face of it, sexual harassment is illegal, like you saw how the Governor reacted to the claims in recent months and weeks. He laughed it off, and I know that is how senior members of the administration would have treated it too. You know, granted, this was pre-Harvey Weinstein and everything, but, you know, like that's why even the whole [REDACTED] [REDACTED] stuff, I'm like, ugh, what a creepy, gross old man, but I never thought to report it.

Q. And just so I understand, what's the connection you're drawing between not thinking to report the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] stuff and the Governor's conduct?

A. Just that even though I knew that it's not appropriate and it's tantamount to harassment that the Governor asked me if I have a boyfriend, that [REDACTED] asked me about my love life, that the Governor kisses me on the cheek, that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] kisses me on the cheek, the culture and standards at the time were like I would have been seen like sort of a Gloria -- or like an Uber-feminist to speak up even in 2014, 2015.

Confidential

Q. When is the first time that you -- sorry, I missed --

A. Oh, sorry, I just -- like I would have been laughed at.

Q. When is the first time you spoke with anyone about how the Governor interacted with you during your time in the Executive Chamber?

A. I spoke to my family at home, not -- like probably the day that he first interacted with me in his office, just saying like that, wow, the Governor he came right up to me, and I remember telling them about how he behaved at that party, but I

2 didn't characterize it like the Governor
3 finds me sexually attractive. It was just 4 like the Governor is kind of like flirty and 5 whatever, you know. He's a -- he's an old
6 Italian man from New York City, da, da, da.

7 Q. When is the first time you
8 characterized the Governor's conduct towards 9 you during your time in the Executive 10 Chamber in a different way?

11 A. Like in negative way?

12 Q. In a negative way or differently
13 from how you characterized it previously.

14 A. A few months into the 15 experience, as I started to feel more and 16 more like it was grating to work there, and 17 like I remember not long after [REDACTED] told 18 me about the high heels rule, thinking like 19 that's so bizarre and that's so backwards, 20 and I remember telling -- I think it was 21 like at Christmas that year when I was home 22 telling some of my cousins about it and 23 people in my family. Like my [REDACTED] [REDACTED], 24 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] are kind of like old-school
25 feminists from like the '70s, and I remember

1 Confidential

2 telling them about it, and they were like,
3 oh, my God, and that was sort of -- but I
4 remember like saying it as, though, yeah,
5 it's super screwed up and it's so backwards, 6 but that's just how the guy is and that's 7 how things are and whatever, whatever.

8 And then so later on this past
9 year, when I went public, I recall, you 10 know, several of those members of my family, 11 people in my friend network reached out and 12 were like, wow, Ana, I remember you telling 13 me about that, I remember you telling me
14 about that, and that was validating to me 15 like, yeah, I wasn't -- it wasn't like I was 16 just blind thinking like this is all 17 hunky-dory. I was open about the fact that 18 it was not appropriate.

19 Q. Did any of the family members or 20 friends in your network, who said they 21 remembered you telling them about your 22 experiences, did any of that happen by text, 23 e-mail or otherwise in writing?

24 A. No, not that -- not that I have 25 record of. I probably have like G-Chats

1 Confidential

2 with [REDACTED] [REDACTED] about certain things. I 3 remember like G-Chatting with him in my 4 office, but he would put those chats on 5 private or whatever. There was some 6 security setting. But those stories that I 7 would share with my family and friends were 8 all like verbal interaction.

9 Q. What about later this year when 10 they said I remember you telling me about 11 it, did that all happen orally?

12 A. Oh, well, I remember my [REDACTED]
13 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] posted it on my Facebook
14 account, so I do have that record. I posted 15 a link to Rebecca Traister's piece that she 16 had written in New York Magazine that 17 included some of my account just because I 18 felt she did a good job of capturing really 19 what I was trying to convey, and she plugged 20 that into the broader culture using other 21 people's stories. So I felt like it was an 22 appropriate thing for me to share with my 23 friend network. And, yeah, my [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
24 posted, wow, that's crazy, I remember you 25 telling us about that.

1 Confidential

2 Q. Based on your experiences from 3 your time working in the Executive Chamber,
4 how do you see the Governor as a man?

5 A. I see the Governor as cowardly,
6 megalomaniac and a narcissist. [REDACTED] 7 [REDACTED] and that's helped me kind of 8 articulate some of that. Like I see 9 narcissistic tendencies in his behavior. He 10 believes that rules that apply to the 11 broader populus don't apply to him. I go 12 back to like the way that they were so quick 13 to decry [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and say [REDACTED], 14 you better resign, and then the Governor is 15 accused of doing just the same stuff, and 16 he's standing his ground. And so I see him
17 as a disingenuous, narcissist, an abuser, 18 abuse of power and abuse of vulnerable young 19 women's bodies.

20 Q. Based on your experiences, how 21 do you think the Governor views women in the 22 workplace?

23 A. I think he views all people in 24 the workplace as a means to an end. I think 25 he views women in the workplace as both a means to an end and a pool from which to enjoy eye candy and entertain some of his sexual proclivities and fantasies, much the way you see it depicted in popular culture, hire beautiful women to flank you all over the place and you're constantly surrounded with beautiful things to look at and women to flirt with, especially when you're the most powerful person in the room and the most powerful person in the office. Nobody can say boo about it. You could be the Hunchback of Notre Dame, but they're going to talk to you.

Confidential

Q. When you worked in the Executive Chamber, did you see or hear about the Governor touching anybody else?

A. Not when I worked there. I just knew that the same way that he behaved with me, he behaved with many other women. So I knew that he was touching and flirtatious, but I didn't know that -- I couldn't have imagined at the time that the Governor might overtly sexually abuse a woman's body or proposition a woman.

1 Confidential

2 Q. Did you hear about that kind of 3 conduct after you left the Executive Chamber 4 and separate from the public allegations?

5 A. I heard about -- this past year
6 after I spoke up, Lindsey Boylan divulged
7 some things to me that I did not know to be 8 true at the time, but she divulged that the 9 Governor was -- had [REDACTED] [REDACTED] with 10 female staffers, including, she named,
11 Sr. Staffer #1 [REDACTED], Senior Staffer #3 and [REDACTED].

12 And I remember thinking that 13 that was so disgusting and I couldn't even 14 imagine, because when I was there, he was 15 still dating [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and in public they 16 were kind of physically affectionate towards 17 one other, and I guess I just thought that 18 even though he likes to flirt with young 19 women, he wasn't having sex with people that 20 worked for him.

21 So it was through a secondary
22 source and it was after the public
23 allegations came out, but it was like 24 something that Lindsey said to me that I 25 don't think she said to any public, like,

1 Confidential

2 media outlet and what not.

3 Q. Did Lindsey tell you what her 4 source was?

5 A. She said -- yeah, I would have 6 to look through my text messages, but she 7 observed some of it and I think she knew 8 through her own network. She didn't tell me 9 any names like so and so told me that this 10 happened.

11 Q. Did you ever see anyone sitting 12 in the Governor's lap?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Have you ever heard about 15 someone sitting in the Governor's lap?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. What did you hear?

18 A. I think there were -- there were 19 allusions to it in some of the public
20 allegations that came out this year.

21 Q. Other than what's in the public
22 allegations, did you hear about anyone
23 sitting in the Governor's lap?

24 A. No. I don't think I can answer
25 that question with any -- like I don't

1 Confidential

2 remember anything specifically about that.

3 Q. Did you ever hear anything about 4 Senior Staffer #3 [REDACTED] sitting in the Governor's lap?

5 A. No. I just heard about the pool
6 parties and Sr. Staffer #3 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
7 and then, you know, Lindsey's claim that [REDACTED] 8 [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] with the Governor.

9 Q. Did you ever see or hear about 10 the Governor hiring a woman after meeting
11 her at an event?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What did you see or hear about?

14 A. I saw and heard about it from 15 the public allegations in the media.

16 Q. But other than what's in the 17 public allegations, you didn't hear about 18 the Governor hiring a woman after meeting
19 her at an event?

20 A. No.

21 Q. When you were in the Executive 22 Chamber, did you hear any rumors about the 23 Governor having [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
24 [REDACTED] with any members of the staff?

25 A. I remember hearing through the

Confidential

2 rumor mill that like he had [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
3 Senior Staffer #2 [REDACTED] [REDACTED], but I didn't 4 take it seriously because I thought --
5 again, I was probably naive, but I thought
6 he was in a happy relationship with [REDACTED] 7 [REDACTED] and I thought that like people were just 8 making things up.

9 Q. When you were in the Chamber,
10 did you hear anybody say that the Governor 11 made her or him uncomfortable?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. Who did you hear say that?

14 A. [REDACTED] [REDACTED], [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. I
15 never -- women didn't really talk about it.
16 I can only speak to like men talking, you
17 know, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] too, about like, oh, God, 18 he's in rare form today. And like -- like 19 not like, oh, the Governor touched me and it 20 made me uncomfortable. It was more just 21 like, oh, God, just had the worst meeting, I 22 got berated for 45 minutes, stuff like that.

23 MS. MAINOO: Before we move to

3 MS. PARK: I apologize,
4 Ms. Liss, if I'm going to ask this and 5 I missed it, but on any occasion when 6 the Governor touched you, did he ask
7 permission to touch you?

8 THE WITNESS: No.

9 MS. PARK: On any occasion in 10 which you witnessed him touch someone 11 else, who was a staff member in the 12 Executive Chamber, did you hear him
13 ask permission to touch them?

14 THE WITNESS: No.

15 MS. PARK: Is there a difference
16 in the way that you saw him touch 17 women in the Chamber versus men in the 18 Chamber?

19 THE WITNESS: Yes.

20 MS. PARK: What's the 21 difference?

22 THE WITNESS: He didn't touch
23 men in the Chamber, and he was gruff 24 and kind of aggressive with men, and 25 he was flirtatious and -- flirtatious

1 Confidential

2 and silly, I guess, with women. He 3 would always just -- he was very much 4 like an alpha male, I suppose, in his 5 interactions. It seemed like --

6 MS. PARK: Did the Governor --
7 apologies. Go ahead, Ms. Liss.

8 THE WITNESS: I was going to 9 say, it seemed like for the most part 10 the men who worked for him that were 11 doing a lot of like the heavy lifting 12 there really hated working there and 13 really hated working for him, and a 14 lot of the women, they weren't subject
15 to the same sort of verbal abuse. It 16 was just a different type of -- it was 17 like -- they was sexualized and that 18 wasn't pleasant, but at least they 19 weren't getting verbally harassed
20 and -- but I know that wasn't true for 21 every -- every woman.

22 MS. PARK: If the Governor had 23 asked your permission to kiss you,
24 what would you have said?

25 THE WITNESS: Probably, sure. I

1 Confidential

2 mean, he's the Governor.

3 MS. PARK: Why is that; why
4 would you say "sure"?

5 THE WITNESS: Because -- well,
6 first of all, I wouldn't view it as 7 like -- I mean, if he asked to kiss me 8 on the lips or something, no way, but 9 I wouldn't have viewed it as a 10 violation of my personal space, but 11 also he's the Governor and I'm not 12 going say no to the Governor.

13 MS. PARK: And why don't you say
14 no to the Governor?

15 THE WITNESS: You don't say no
16 to that Governor because you might 17 black -- get blackballed. With 18 Governor Cuomo, if you're asked to do 19 something and then you fail at that 20 task, you might never get asked to do
21 anything ever again. You might get 22 reassigned somewhere else.

23 MS. PARK: Is that what you mean
24 by "blackballed"?

25 THE WITNESS: Um-hum.

1 Confidential

2 MS. PARK: That's all I have.

3 MS. MAINOO: Thank you.

4 BY MS. MAINOO:

5 Q. Miss Liss, did you ever observe 6 anyone say no to the Governor during your 7 time at the Executive Chamber?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Did you ever hear about anyone
10 saying no to the Governor?

11 A. Only political adversaries.

12 Q. Are there examples that come to 13 mind?

14 A. Well, his fight with De Blasio
15 about, you know, the New York City schools
16 and issues on that level, but there was no 17 tasks big or small that you would say no to 18 that the Governor asked you to do no matter 19 how important or unimportant you were.

20 Q. What's the reason for that?

21 A. Because he's the most powerful
22 person in that environment. If you say no, 23 then you risk losing your job or being 24 reassigned.

25 I guess to more accurately

Confidential

2 answer your first question, specifically I
3 don't have an example, but I believe that 4 Howard Glaser said no to the Governor and 5 disagreed with the Governor on a couple of 6 important matters and they thus had some 7 sort of a falling out, which is what 8 pressed -- which is what led to Howard 9 leaving to go work elsewhere in 2014 -- in 10 2015 after the Governor was reelected, and I 11 remember seeing that as sort of, wow, that 12 was brave on Howard's part. I think they 13 disagreed on certain higher level political 14 or policy matters and had somewhat of a 15 professional falling out. They went in 16 different directions.

17 Q. What did you know about the 18 falling out?

19 A. I just remember observing the 20 frequency with which they met dissipating 21 significantly in the months leading up to 22 his election and then immediately thereafter
23 the re-election and the second term, and I 24 remember hearing through the grapevine just 25 that like they're not getting along, Howard

1 Confidential

2 wants out or something.

3 I remember also thinking
4 selfishly what does that mean for me if 5 Howard is leaving, and of course, that meant 6 Jim Malatras came and I had to start to make 7 some moves.

8 Q. Did you have a sense of whether 9 Howard's attitude toward the Governor 10 changed or the Governor's attitude toward 11 Howard changed or both after Howard
12 disagreed with the Governor?

13 A. I think -- I think it was both,
14 but I observed more so Howard's dynamic, 15 that like he didn't take the Governor as 16 seriously and that he was pretty fed up 17 with the circumstances, which was 18 demoralizing for me too because I was like 19 I'm here every day, I work for you, you hate 20 your job, what does that mean for me, where 21 am I going to go.

22 I took Howard to be, you know, a
23 bit of an intellectual, and I don't know 24 what specifically was driving his 25 frustrations, but it's probably a lot of

1 Confidential

2 things. He had been with the Governor since 3 the Governor was HUD secretary.

4 Q. You referred several times to 5 the culture in the Executive Chamber. How 6 would you describe it from the time when you 7 worked there?

8 A. Cutthroat, hostile, hyper image
9 focused and -- you know, it was all about 10 like power and connections.

11 Q. In what way was it all about 12 power and connections?

13 A. How many people you knew and 14 what types of people they were and 15 how -- you know, like for instance, Melissa 16 DeRosa's [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], and 17 there were folks that were related to high 18 level officials in New York City, are 19 connected to powerful wealthy families, and 20 there was a lot of, like, oh, don't you know 21 who his or her dad is or his or her uncle 22 and, oh, so and so got their job because 23 of -- they're related to this person or they 24 know this person, which exacerbated some of 25 my own insecurities about, like, I'm not

1 Confidential

2 really related to anybody and I don't really 3 know anybody. So there was that. And, you 4 know, you don't get an audience with the 5 Governor unless you have something to offer
6 him.

7 Q. What was the work environment
8 like in the Chamber?

9 A. It was chaotic and it was 10 depressing and it was all consuming.

11 Q. How was it chaotic?

12 A. There was just no -- nothing was 13 really systematic, like your job was 14 different on any given day. There was no 15 consistency. It was always just like 16 putting out fires, being part of a crew that 17 was putting out fires. In that Rebecca 18 Traister piece, somebody described it as 19 like policy-making paint by numbers, and I 20 thought that kind of nailed it. It was like 21 we were just figuring out as we went along 22 day to day what the matters -- like what 23 were the priorities on any given day.

24 Q. What did you think were the 25 reasons for that?

Confidential

2 A. Hanging onto power. You know,
3 survival was everything, and there was a lot
4 of energy paid to snuffing threats, a lot 5 of -- the communications team was really the 6 most important team anywhere, and their 7 whole focus -- like they ran like a newsroom
8 that was constantly turning out press
9 releases, announcements, announcements,
10 announcements, and then planting negative 11 words and narratives about enemies of the 12 Governor.

13 When I began to learn that it
14 was all about PR and communications and less 15 so about policy making, I remember feeling a 16 little alarmed by that, but then also like,
17 well, I suppose it's not that much of a 18 surprise because that's just how things are 19 nowadays, I guess. And I used to work in 20 the journalism world, and I understand the 21 importance of press announcements and stuff
22 like that.

23 Q. How did you learn it was all 24 about PR and communications?

25 A. Well, I really -- I really

Confidential

2       figured it out or got a heavy dose of it 3       when I was given that early assignment to 4       put the Regional Economic Development
5       Council videos together, and what I learned 6       was like he watched like 30 seconds of my 7       Long Island video, and we had done an 8       interview with somebody who -- there was 9       like a fishery project that got some 10      financing through the State, like a 11      restoration of a fishery, and the Governor 12      watched, and he was like I don't know who 13      the fuck these people are. And then he made 14      us redo the whole thing to be like bigger, 15      splashier, sexier, and we reproduced all of 16      them to focus on projects, many projects 17      that didn't even have anything to do the 18      Regional Economic Development Councils.

19               And that was my first 20      realization that it was a dog and pony show 21      or it was like the Wizard of Oz hip, like 22      don't pay attention to the man behind the 23      curtain, like watch the flashy show, and I 24      felt a little foolish from that.

25               I also learned in my Fellowship

Confidential

orientation [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was invited to come -- [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] were invited to come and speak to the fellows. And [REDACTED] had worked for [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], I think it's Channel 6. A lot of the communication shops -- like Channel 6 was almost like a feeder to that crew. And he told us that the Governor's Office treats -- like the communications team is a news organization and they have newsroom meetings every morning and they're constantly -- you know, they're constantly monitoring the news cycle, and the Governor is constantly getting these press clippings sent to his BlackBerry, and that's like everything that he pays attention to. So I learned really early on it was the most important thing.

Q. How did people -- how did staff treat each other in the Chamber?

A. It was a sort of mixed bag.
There was hostility and mistrust, particularly like young women, I think. And then there was anger and yelling, and then

1 Confidential

2 there was some camaraderie. There was some 3 Stockholm syndrome. You know, I think like 4 particularly that group of young people,
5 that crew, they took some solace in each 6 other, drinking.

7 Q. You referred to hostility and 8 mistrust particularly with young women.
9 What did -- can you elaborate on that?

10 A. Yeah, I just remember like mean
11 girl culture and being looked at sideways 12 and treated with sort of like -- especially 13 people like Melissa, Melissa always 14 definitely treated me like that, like you 15 felt kind of like nothing. Just disrespect.
16 Women at that level looked down upon women 17 that were at a lower level and didn't treat 18 them like -- really like human beings.

19 Q. And other than Melissa, who are 20 the other women at the higher level that you 21 just referred to?

22 A. Stephanie Benton was definitely 23 one of them, and Jill DesRosiers was one as 24 well. She was quieter. I didn't really get 25 a read on her really much, but that was

1 Confidential

2 definitely like a trifecta.

3 Q. What was Melissa DeRosa's
4 position at the time?

5 A. She was director of 6 communications or she was in whatever role 7 she was just prior to being director of 8 communications. It wasn't long 9 after -- like she had come from 10 Schneiderman's office to go work there, and 11 she certainly like wasn't secretary to the 12 Governor or anything like that. She was 13 working in the communications shop.

14 Q. Do you remember where she sat?

15 A. Yeah, she was in the 16 communications office, which was -- like if 17 I was here (indicating), the Governor's 18 Office was like this suite(indicating) and 19 then the communication -- then like the red 20 room was there (indicating) and then like 21 around the corner from the red room was the 22 communications office. It was all attached 23 by an internal corridor that went through 24 each office so you didn't have to go out in 25 the main hallway.

1 Confidential

2 Q. And you referred to "mean girl
3 culture" just now. What did you mean by 4 that?

5 A. Like -- I mean, it's one of 6 those things Melissa DeRosa didn't have to 7 look at me square in the eye and say, well,
8 I think you're a stupid little bitch, you 9 know. People can make you feel like you're 10 nothing and nobody just by not acknowledging 11 your presence and never knowing your name or 12 looking and glancing your direction, and 13 that's how it was.

14 Like I saw her and Stephanie 15 almost every day when they were in the 16 office, and I don't think either one of them 17 ever uttered my name or glanced in my 18 direction. I was certainly on e-mails with 19 them a bunch, but -- and I learned obviously 20 later on that was true across the board.
21 They were made to feel they were the chosen 22 ones, that they were really important, they 23 were the Governor's main women, and then we 24 were all seen as sort of like wannabees, I 25 guess, but they didn't really know that I

1 Confidential

2 didn't want to be them.

3 Q. What's the reason you didn't 4 want to be them?

5 A. Because I wanted to go home and 6 just have a regular job and not have to -- I
7 didn't want my whole professional -- I 8 didn't want to feel defined by this man and 9 his legacy and his administration. I was 10 like -- I learned in a few short months that 11 it was a pretty meaningless existence, and I 12 realized that I could probably do more good 13 in my career by getting out of there and 14 working at the -- in a lower level somewhere 15 else.

16 Q. You mentioned I think at the 17 beginning of our interview that Cuomo
18 acolytes use terms like "loser" and "zero."
19 How did they use those terms and who did you
20 mean by "Cuomo acolytes"?

21 A. Well, I just remember -- so [REDACTED]
22 [REDACTED] is someone who has been around that 23 world since his campaign for his first term 24 and had ingratiated himself to Howard, and 25 Howard was really tight to the Governor for

Confidential

2 a really long time, and I picked up on their 3 language really quickly, and they 4 were -- [REDACTED] [REDACTED] was -- like I said, he 5 had kind of loose lips, and he would talk 6 about, oh, this person, he's fucking zero, 7 he's a loser, and I guess I took some of his 8 language -- and I remember hearing Howard
9 using the same language, [REDACTED] picking it up 10 from Howard, and I learned like maybe this 11 is like the dictionary according to the 12 Cuomo administration. I remember [REDACTED]
13 talking about women like they're smoke shows 14 and she's a 10.

15 Q. What is a "smoke show"?

16 A. I didn't know what it was then,
17 up until that point, but like a hot women, a 18 beautiful woman, a smoke show.

19 And [REDACTED] and Howard would smoke
20 cigars in Howard's office, and I remember 21 thinking smoke cigar, it's illegal to smoke
22 inside the State office building, so 23 whatever, and using those kind of 24 language -- that kind of language, and I
25 took that to mean that this is like

1 Confidential

2 Cuomo-ese, I guess, "smoke shows" and 3 "zeros" and "losers" and "fuckups" and stuff
4 like that.

5 Q. Were you ever privy to the 6 Governor's use of that type of language?

7 A. No. I did hear him use the 8 F-bomb. Like "what the fuck is this," you
9 know, stuff like that, but never -- I don't 10 think I ever heard him call someone a name 11 outright, but I didn't -- there were very, 12 very few occasions when I might have been in 13 that vicinity where I might pick up on 14 something like that. I could tell that 15 there was some isolation that took place.
16 Like when the Governor is ready to have one 17 of those types of conversations, the doors
18 are closed and there is only certain people 19 in the room, so...

20 Q. And who were the people who 21 would be in the room under those 22 circumstances?

23 A. [REDACTED]; Jim Malatras;
24 [REDACTED], depending on the subject;
25 Joe Percoco; [REDACTED], when he was

Confidential

alive; Larry Schwartz; Stephanie; Melissa; Josh Vlasto, when he was there; [REDACTED] [REDACTED], when he was there; like those guys, like the inner -- [REDACTED] [REDACTED]; the inner circle, the circle of trust, so to speak, I guess.

Q. How much overlap did you have with Josh Vlasto?

A. Very small amount. He left not long after I came onboard. I remember seeing him come through a bunch of times and then he disappeared, and now he's working, I think, at one of those blue chip, whether it's a tech company or something. He's in the private sector.

Q. What position did he hold when you overlapped?

A. He was chief of staff, I believe.

Q. Did you observe how he interacted with people in the Executive Chamber?

A. Yeah, he was [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. Sorry. He was just a jerk.

Q. How so?

Confidential

A. In the same manner that like and I interacted like in passing on a couple

you know, when he observed me in Howard

Glaser's office and kind of glanced -- breathing down my neck and monitoring your 18

every move after you moved over to Howard

19

Glaser's office. Who was breathing down

20 your neck and monitoring your moves?

21

A. I guess I should amend that

22 statement because I felt like I was in a

23 fish bowl and that people were looking at me

24 constantly and like they knew I was there,

25

but the people weren't really monitoring

what I was working on. It was just what -- that I was there, that I was sitting at my computer, what I was wearing. I felt like I was being -- you can feel watched and you don't necessarily feel like -- like it's not like they were monitoring my attendance and what time I got there and when did I leave. It was I felt like I was on display.

Q. Were there any individual people who made you feel like you were on display?

A. No. I guess I don't really know how to answer that question. Just, you know, there were a lot of the same people that came in and out of that office that were very important people, whether they were going to meet with the Governor or with Howard, and when they would come into that room, you know, they would observe who's -- who is around, and I felt observed or seen by those people, and there was some pressure associated with that, I guess.

Q. You referred several times to

2 Q. How long was the Fellowship
3 slated to be?

4 A. Two years.

5 Q. When was it supposed to end?

6 A. The summer of 2015.

7 Q. When did you start looking for 8 your next job after the Chamber?

9 A. The spring of 2015.

10 Q. What led to your decision to 11 look for a new job?

12 A. Escapism. I wanted to just get 13 out and I wanted -- I found it really 14 appealing like any job that has structure
15 and is not political. I was sort of lusting 16 after the idea that like I could maybe 17 leverage the experience as a golden ticket, 18 so to speak, and get a job somewhere that 19 was more normal, but I couldn't do so in the 20 traditional way that others were doing
21 because I didn't have -- I couldn't say
22 like, oh, use the Governor as a reference,
23 like that wasn't -- I couldn't tell anybody
24 that I was looking for a job.

25 Q. What's the reason you couldn't

1 Confidential

2 tell anybody that you were looking for a 3 job?

4 A. Because, again, that [REDACTED]
5 [REDACTED] example that -- it was common
6 knowledge that, you know, you stick it out, 7 you stick around until a member of the 8 administration identifies an opportunity for 9 you or something opens up within the circle 10 of influence that's tied to the State, and 11 that just wasn't going to happen for me. I 12 couldn't really envision it.

13 Q. Did you ever speak with anyone
14 about opportunities for a position as a 15 deputy secretary for Economic Development or 16 other work in leadership within --

17 A. Yeah, I -- I thought that that 18 might be in the cards for me, but [REDACTED] 19 [REDACTED] sort of laughed it off the couple of 20 times that I brought it up because he had 21 been looked over for the deputy secretary
22 position. He had been functioning for a few 23 years being paid as an assistant secretary 24 functioning as the deputy secretary and the 25 assistant secretary, and I was informed

1 Confidential

2 that, like, the Governor was looking for a 3 name, you know, some splashy sort of a brand 4 name, like person to appoint, and as long as 5 [REDACTED] was in the assistant deputy role,
6 that wasn't in the cards.

7 So I thought maybe a job at 8 Empire State Development, and I talked to a 9 woman named [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] there, I can't 10 remember her title, but I had helped worked 11 on the Global New York policy language, and 12 I thought -- I worked, I collaborated at ESD
13 on that. I thought could there be a 14 position with Global New York, and they 15 didn't really have anything.

16 And she was like, well, what do
17 you think about moving into New York City.
18 I don't think I -- I'll think about it, but 19 nothing materialized. There were just a lot 20 of fits and starts.

21 Q. Looking back, how do you assess 22 your time in the Executive Chamber?

23 A. Survival and really an expensive 24 lesson, expensive lessons learned about my 25 personal and professional tenacity and about

1 Confidential

2 how the State of New York is governed and 3 how politics functions in the State of New 4 York.

5 Q. What are those expensive lessons
6 that you learned?

7 A. I learned that I'm not cut from 8 the kind of aggressive fabric that -- like 9 I'm not the type of person that wants to cut 10 other people down, I don't have like a 11 fiercely competitive spirit, and so I don't 12 believe that I could be successful rising 13 through the ranks of a political operation,
14 like what Andrew Cuomo operates as Governor, 15 and I learned that -- like I said earlier, 16 it seems like the only way to govern the 17 State of New York in such a way that people 18 think you're actually doing your job and 19 getting things done is to break the law and 20 find shortcuts around legal processes, find 21 shortcuts around legislative processes.

22 And, you know, it was an 23 expensive lesson learned because it was two 24 years of my life. I didn't really save any 25 money. You know, I learned a lot of lessons

1 Confidential

2 and I made some solid, good-lasting 3 connections, but not -- not necessarily what 4 I thought was going to come out of it in 5 terms of my network and in terms of my 6 professional work experiences.

7 Q. You referred a couple of times
8 to legality or breaking the law. Did you
9 observe or hear about the Governor or anyone
10 in the Executive Chamber breaking the law
11 during your time in the Chamber?

12 A. Well, yeah. I mean, I knew and 13 was privy to what -- you know, that [REDACTED] 14 [REDACTED] calling [REDACTED] and 15 complaining that [REDACTED] wasn't being paid 16 enough money, and so then [REDACTED] got 17 [REDACTED] another job and got him more money, 18 and that was one of the things that ended up 19 landing [REDACTED] in jail, and I remember like 20 knowing about it and understanding that it 21 was problematic.

22 And I remember learning about 23 the Governor not putting anything in 24 writing, not even a text message, and 25 understanding there is a reason for that

1 Confidential

2 because there is no paper trail for certain 3 conversations and certain things.

4 Yeah, like just witnessing 5 nepotism and favoritism, knowing that it's 6 not legal, knowing also people were -- there 7 was a lot of blending between personal and 8 professional life and drinking on the job 9 and stuff like that, and I knew that that 10 wasn't legal, but certainly --

11 I don't know if I can give you a 12 specific example, but I know from working 13 there that the whole goal was to push 14 through the Governor's agenda, avoiding at 15 all costs any influence on the part of 16 members of the State legislature. It had to 17 be his budget, his policies, and a lot of 18 that involved wheeling and dealing, I think,
19 outside of the law.

20 Q. In what way was there
21 blending -- let me start again.

22 In what ways was there blending 23 between the personal and professional in the 24 Chamber?

25 A. Well, like I told you, you know, that crew of young friends and everybody -- everybody there, it seemed like their whole entire social life was their work colleagues and it was like a cult or a religion. When you weren't there, you were drinking with the people that you worked with. The parties at the Executive Mansion and the after parties, you know, those were all colleagues drinking together, and it was -- it was that type of a place where it was just 24/7 grind.

Confidential

Q. Any things that you're proud of during your time working in the Chamber?

A. Yes, yup. I'm --

Q. What?

A. I'm proud that I wordsmithed and helped to develop a lot of the language that was used in the 2014 and 2015 State of the State policy books.

I advocated for the New York State Council on the Arts, and I got him a $5 million budget increase one of those years. It was their first in a very long time. And I participated in budget

1 Confidential

2 negotiations with the legislature for the 3 Council on the Arts.

4 And I was proud of the network
5 that I cultivated and some of the 6 educational skills that I was able to 7 develop on the road, working through the 8 Regional Economic Development Council
9 process.

10 MS. MAINOO: Before we move to 11 the next topic, I will pause to give 12 Ms. Kennedy Park a chance to ask any 13 additional questions.

14 MS. PARK: I don't have any 15 questions on that topic. Thank you,
16 Abena.

17 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We're now
18 going off the record. The time is 19 6:07.

20 (Recess.)

21 THE VIDEOGRAPHER: We are now
22 going back on. The time is now 6:20.

23 BY MS. MAINOO:

24 Q. Ms. Liss, I want to just go back
25 to the May 2014 budget party. Can you

1 Confidential

2 describe any physical contact that you had 3 with the Governor then?

4 A. Yes, he came over to me and 5 embraced me and kissed me on the cheek, and 6 when he gestured to the photographer to take 7 our photos, he slipped -- he slipped his 8 hand around my waist.

9 Q. So since leaving the Executive 10 Chamber in 2015 and before going public with 11 your allegations against the Governor, have 12 you said anything publicly about the 13 Governor?

14 A. No. I mean -- well, yes, I've 15 posted social media, like on Twitter, you
16 know, reTweeting or saying, you know,
17 complimentary things like, wow, great job,
18 Governor, things like that.

19 Q. What kind of things have you 20 said complimentary things about the Governor 21 regarding?

22 A. Like about some policy things,
23 like, oh -- like how he handled COVID, you 24 know, when he was really popular during the 25 COVID briefings and everybody was watching

1 Confidential

2 him. I think I publicly commended him and I
3 had wished him -- I remember posting
4 something about it -- happy birthday.

5 Because, you know, it's 6 important -- I want to clarify that to me up 7 until very recently the Governor was 8 infallible, just -- even though I felt like 9 I -- I felt awful working there, I never 10 could have foreseen the Governor ever 11 being -- ever having a public fall from 12 grace, just knowing how he func -- how he 13 operates his office. He's just -- you can't 14 bring the man down. So it's more out of 15 survival and in order to maintain your 16 dignity, you stay in his good graces;
17 otherwise, you become a nobody.

18 Q. Even after --

19 A. Sorry.

20 Q. Even after you had left the 21 Executive Chamber, was that the way you 22 felt?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. What's the reason for that,
25 given that you no longer worked for the

1 Confidential

2 Governor?

3 A. Well, I believed that even 4 though it was a personal and professional 5 failure that I couldn't survive there and 6 stick around there, and I didn't want to, I
7 didn't feel that I had what it took. I 8 needed to maintain a public semblance that 9 it was a valuable and honorable use of my 10 time, and I maintained bragging rights that 11 I worked there, I survived there, I have 12 this photograph, look at me.

13 It was more beneficial for me to 14 couch it that it was a valuable experience
15 than for me to say, oh, yeah, that was a 16 massive waste of my time, that guy is a 17 total dick. Publicly at least. Privately I 18 would be honest with people that it was a 19 total waste of my time and [REDACTED] 20 [REDACTED] but publicly I have a job that still 21 kind of -- the stuff that I do now is 22 germane to stuff that I did then, so...

23 Q. What do you mean when you say 24 stuff you do now is germane to what you did 25 then?

1 Confidential

2 A. I still work in economic 3 development and I work for a unit of local 4 government in the State of New York. In 5 fact, my boss was one of the men that was 6 one of the county executives that was 7 directly called by Larry Schwartz.

8 In light of the vaccine
9 distribution, you may know that there 10 was -- that Larry was calling around to 11 county executives and engaging their 12 loyalty, you know, perhaps in exchange for 13 vaccines, and I know that Adam Bello was one 14 of those county executives.

15 Q. How did you feel about the 16 statements that you made that were 17 complimentary about the Governor?

18 A. Like I never deleted them or 19 anything. I just -- I suppose I was being 20 like a public sycophant, I guess, in a way.
21 I'm not going to be somebody who goes on 22 Twitter and says the Governor [REDACTED]
23 at least at that point in time.

24 Q. What did you think OF how the 25 Governor seemed to be managing COVID?

Confidential

2 A. It was very much the way he 3 managed everything else. He loves a crisis.
4 You know, when I was there, I -- I wasn't 5 part of a crew that managed Superstorm
6 Sandy, but I was part of a crew that worked 7 through -- there was a huge snowstorm in 8 Buffalo, a deadly snowstorm, just awful, and 9 I was part of the crew that set up the -- 10 you know, there was like a command center
11 and they set up like a call center for folks 12 to call in emergencies and the Governor did 13 daily briefings.

14 I remember noticing that he was 15 managing through COVID or governing through 16 COVID the same way he does through other 17 emergencies. He used them as opportunities 18 because all eyes, all attention is focused 19 on the emergency, and so then he becomes a 20 savior.

21 And I knew that these daily
22 briefings about statistics weren't in and of 23 themselves acts of governing, but they were 24 perhaps promoting a sense of calm and 25 consistency during a certain point in time,

1 Confidential

2 and it was again governing by PR versus 3 actually doing something.

4 And, of course, I knew that 5 somewhere along the way behind the scenes
6 stuff is not right and there are inequities 7 and certainly special treatment is being 8 doled out to certain people as it always is, 9 so I wasn't surprised when, of course, we 10 learned about nursing homes and we learned 11 about members of the family and high-level 12 staffers getting access to testing and 13 vaccines and stuff like that.

14 And I knew too with the book
15 situation, when I was there, he was on the 16 tail end of writing his last book, which was 17 kind of a flop, and he had members of the 18 staff working on that, like his 19 communications team especially. I remember 20 him being followed around by like a 21 ghostwriter. And so when that whole thing 22 came out, I wasn't surprised, of course, he 23 had people on his staff working on the book.

24 He's obsessed with his own 25 public persona and public profile and his

2 polling numbers and his media, how much time 3 is being dedicated to him in the news, and 4 it was true back then, it was even more so 5 true these last several months, so none of 6 it was surprising to me.

7 Q. Given your current position, did 8 you feel free to post Tweets that were 9 critical of the Governor before March 2021?

10 A. No. In fact, prior to joining 11 the administration and getting that 12 Fellowship, when I was still in Rochester, I 13 was involved with a local organization, the 14 Monroe County Young Democrats, and I helped 15 them with their e-mail newsletters and with 16 their social media and I helped set up a 17 Twitter account.

18 And I remember one year like 19 Tweeting, live Tweeting the Governor's State
20 of the State, and I can't recall what I 21 posted that was critical, but something in 22 regards to young people and, you know, our 23 policy that -- that the young democrats have 24 taken a stance, I don't recall what it was,
25 but I remember the next day I was at the gym

1 Confidential

2 and I got a phone call from one my fellow
3 volunteers that he had gotten a phone call 4 from the Governor's regional director at the 5 time telling us to take the Tweet down.

6 And I remember thinking we are 7 just these little peon young democrats of 8 Monroe County, I think we maybe have like 50
9 Twitter followers, and the Governor himself
10 apparently, or somebody is paying attention
11 to what we were Tweeting, and I remember 12 from that point forward knowing you don't go 13 public with anything critical of the 14 Governor if you ever want to be in his good 15 graces or be on the receiving end of his 16 powers as Governor.

17 So I knew when I spoke out in 18 March that that was it.

19 Q. Have you had any contact with 20 current or former members of -- well, let's 21 start again.

22 Have you had any contact with 23 current members of the executive Chamber 24 since Lindsey Boylan's allegations became 25 public in December 2020?

1 Confidential

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Who?

4 A. Rich Azzopardi called me on my 5 cell phone in December, not longer after 6 Lindsey posted that Tweet, and I remember
7 thinking like why is Rich Azzopardi calling 8 me, and I thought maybe it had to do with my 9 job and, oh, neat, the Governor's Office is 10 calling me. And then he sounded sort of 11 nervous and asked me if Lindsey -- if I had 12 been in touch with Lindsey Boylan, if she 13 had tried to contact me and if I had spoken 14 with her at all, and I said no. And then he 15 said, you know, can you just let -- reach 16 out, let me know if she does try to contact
17 you.

18 And then I remember thinking
19 like how many other people is he reaching 20 out to, why is he reaching out to me, you 21 know. What would -- what would he or 22 someone else have observed that would have 23 made them think to contact Ana who hasn't 24 worked there since 2015.

25 Q. Did you have any thoughts about

1 Confidential

2 why Rich or anyone else would have thought 3 to contact you?

4 A. Yeah, I thought it was because 5 maybe they saw the Governor flirted with me
6 on occasion and they thought that I might be 7 somebody who would feel emboldened to speak
8 up, and maybe they thought Lindsey is going 9 to try to -- maybe Lindsey is going to 10 cultivate a network of other women who had 11 similar experiences, and they want to 12 neutralize that threat because that's what 13 they do, that's their MO.

14 It certainly wasn't like -- he 15 wasn't trying to reach out and say, oh, you 16 know, we're trying to collect women who used 17 to work here who have good things to say 18 about the Governor, because I remember that 19 was out there, that was a narrative, like 20 that they were trying to -- and maybe they 21 were. I just -- that was not the nature or 22 the tone and tenor of the call. It was like 23 he was trying to figure out has Lindsey 24 contacted me, have I spoken to Lindsey, and 25 I thought that was weird because, you know,

Confidential

I felt like a lot of what I had experienced was kind of invisible there. You know, I wasn't -- it wasn't like I was special, like I was the only person that was special that was being kissed on the cheek, and I didn't -- when I looked back on the experience, I didn't characterize the whole thing like that was two years of me being sexually harassed by the Governor, that wasn't it. I didn't think that that was a defining thing, so it felt strange that Rich would have observed something or somebody else would have and said to him to call me.

And that -- I remember because I was with [REDACTED] at the time, we were on [REDACTED], and it was like that's weird the Governor's office just called me and they asked me if -- I remember he thought it was weird.

Q. When was it -- when did Rich call you?

A. In December 2020. So I got [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], and then it was

1 Confidential

2 like Monday the 21st, I think, in the 3 morning.

4 Q. Did Rich call you on your cell
5 phone?

6 A. Uh-hum.

7 Q. Had Rich ever called you before?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Did you ever speak with Rich 10 after that?

11 A. No.

12 Q. Did you ever communicate in any 13 other way with Rich after that call?

14 A. No.

15 Q. Did any other current Chamber 16 staff reach out to you after December 1, 17 2020?

18 A. No.

19 Q. How about former Chamber staff?

20 A. Actually -- yes, yeah. [REDACTED]

21 [REDACTED] reached out to me, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

22 [REDACTED], and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] reached out to me.

23 Q. What did [REDACTED] have to say?

24 A. Well, at first [REDACTED] -- because 25 I spoke on background to -- to Gothamist,

1 Confidential

2 and when that story hit, he reached out. He 3 was like are you -- I think the code name
4 they gave me was Sara. He goes, are you
5 Sara. All these people are asking me if you
6 are Sara. And I lied and I said no.

7 And then I decided to just 8 attach my name to it because I just had a 9 change of heart and I thought I don't care, 10 I don't have much to lose really, and it's 11 more powerful to attach my identity. I just 12 know because I have a journalism background, 13 I studied journalism, when you -- interviews 14 that you give on background are valuable, 15 but it's better when you can identify a real 16 source. That lends credibility to the 17 story. So I felt it was a public service.
18 So then I outed myself, and then he sent me 19 some mean text messages like you liar.

20 And then [REDACTED] reached out and 21 just was like, hey, I'm thinking of you, you 22 know, that was really brave, he like called 23 me.

24 Q. Did [REDACTED] say anything else
25 other than what you've already described?

1 Confidential

2 A. No, not really. He goes -- I
3 think he said something like lose my number 4 or whatever. I just blocked him. I should 5 have had him blocked anyways.

6 He had been like let go from his 7 position in the [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED] last 8 year, I think, so he's [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED], I 9 believe, but -- so he was -- was with the 10 Chamber recently as of last year, but not 11 this year.

12 Q. Did [REDACTED] ever try to discourage 13 you from talking about your experience in 14 the Chamber?

15 A. Well, when he -- well, I guess
16 when years ago he made it clear to me like 17 that anybody that speaks out against the 18 Governor like loses his shirt basically, but 19 when he texted me about like, oh, are you 20 Sara, he was like -- and I had said no, he 21 was like, well, good, because whoever that 22 is like -- kind of I think he alluded to 23 something like they were just trying to get 24 attention or something disparaging.

25 Q. I know earlier you said that you

1 Confidential

2 know Lindsey Boylan. Do you know any of the 3 other women who have made allegations of 4 sexual harassment by the Governor?

5 A. Not personally, and I didn't 6 overlap with any of them professionally.

7 Q. Have you spoken with Lindsey
8 about any of your respective interactions
9 with the Governor?

10 A. Not in detail. I -- she didn't 11 ask me questions about it, and I didn't ask 12 her questions about her experience.
13 We -- when she contacted me, it was just 14 kind of to say like, wow, you know, thank 15 you for speaking up and I've got your back 16 kind of thing.

17 Q. When did you speak?

18 A. It was not long after the Wall
19 Street Journal article came out. I think it 20 was right after that.

21 Q. Before the Wall Street Journal
22 article came out, had you communicated with 23 Lindsey about experiences with the Governor?

24 A. No, but -- well, so she 25 contacted me not long after her blog post

Confidential

2 and indicated that she was working with 3 Rebecca Traister to create like a safe space
4 if other women and other staffers felt like 5 they wanted to share stories, and she 6 wasn't -- she made it clear that she wasn't 7 trying to pressure or anything, but that 8 because of the harassment that she was 9 getting and like the fact that the -- she 10 was being called, you know, a liar, she was 11 trying to be strategic about airing the 12 truth, and she knew from the time that we 13 had interacted with each other and 14 overlapped that she had identified me as 15 maybe somebody that had experienced
16 something similar, and so I --

17 I said that I would be happy to 18 talk to Rebecca Traister on background, and 19 then after I talked to Rebecca, I started to 20 feel more comfortable and -- well, I felt 21 like -- because I hadn't talked about it
22 really before to anybody, and then I felt 23 more comfortable with not being anonymous
24 and being -- and attaching my name to it, so 25 Lindsey had expressed gratitude.

1 Confidential

2 I didn't know at the time like
3 how big of a deal it would be. I suppose 4 that's naive, but -- because I didn't come 5 out and say, oh, the Governor grabbed my 6 body parts, but because there had been so 7 few people that had shared their stories and 8 attached their names to their stories, it
9 ended up really blowing up and I didn't 10 exactly expect that, so.

11 But Lindsey and I we did overlap 12 and work on a couple of things together, and 13 later on when I worked at Cornell, actually 14 she stayed in touch with me, and I helped 15 her when she worked for the ESD, had a 16 couple of meetings at Cornell when she was 17 in that job. So it's not as though we 18 didn't know each other at all and didn't 19 have any -- like I remember at Ithaca, when 20 she came to Ithaca to meet -- to have the 21 meeting at Cornell, we were exchanging 22 pleasantries and sort of -- I recall having 23 sort of an eye-roll conversation about like, 24 oh, God, that place, so awful, so good to be 25 out. So maybe that's part of the reason why

1 Confidential

2 she had me in her Rolodex of people to reach 3 out to.

4 Q. Have you spoken with any of the 5 other complainants about your respective 6 experiences with the Governor?

7 A. No.

8 Q. You mentioned that when you
9 spoke with Rebecca Traister was sort of one 10 of the first times you spoke with anyone 11 about that. What did you mean by that?

12 A. It was the first time that I had 13 ever answered pointed and detailed 14 questions, like informed questions about the 15 toxic workplace environment and felt 16 validated that I wasn't crazy, that it
17 wasn't -- it wasn't that I couldn't hack it.
18 It was just a bad place to work.

19 Rebecca shared some of the 20 anecdotes that had been shared with her by 21 other interviewees, and New York Magazine
22 had a team of fact-checkers. So it wasn't 23 as though these were made up stories, and a 24 lot of them were like really eerily
25 identical to what I had been talking about,

1 Confidential

2 and it felt kind of therapeutic in a way.

3 She is a writer who had 4 written -- she has written books about this 5 type subject matter and had a unique level 6 of expertise on it beyond your typical 7 journalist that's seeking a sound bite. So 8 it was cathartic, I think, to talk to her.

9 MS. MAINOO: Before I wrap up,
10 Jen, do you have any questions?

11 MS. PARK: Yes. Thanks, Abena.

12 Since you've have gone public,
13 are you aware of any efforts by staff 14 of the Executive Chamber to try to 15 discredit you or impugn your 16 character?

17 THE WITNESS: No, not at this 18 time. Immediately after I spoke out
19 through the Wall Street Journal, you 20 know, the Governor was asked about my 21 account and he did not deny it; 22 however, later on, more recently he 23 has categorically denied everything, 24 but nobody came out and tried to 25 malign my character. I was expecting that that was a possibility.

I was bothered when it was brought up that like they had like a dossier about Lindsey. I remember thinking, well, gosh, I didn't even know what -- who my HR contact was. I had nobody giving me performance evaluations in any regularity, I had nobody monitoring where I was at any given time, I didn't even have a formal way to put in for vacation, so who was keeping a dossier on Lindsey? Was somebody keeping a dossier on me? Can somebody make something up about me, like did they make up whatever the allegations were against her. So I was afraid of that.

And certainly that's the style of their communications operation is, you know, deny, deny, deny, character assassinate. So I was fully expecting that. So when I spoke out, I was clear to those journalists that, listen, if they try to call me a

2 nobody and say that I didn't have any 3 influence and I didn't have access,
4 they're right, I didn't have any 5 influence, I didn't have any access.
6 These are the things that happened.
7 This was on film. These are the 8 things I can attach date stamps to.

9 I made sure that like I wasn't 10 speaking in platitudes about, well, I 11 felt it was like this, and -- I was 12 very careful, because I knew they 13 could come out and say Ana is a loser
14 and she's making it up for attention.

15 MS. PARK: I know you said that,
16 you know, they haven't publicly tried 17 to malign you or discredit you. Are 18 you aware of them privately trying to 19 do that?

20 THE WITNESS: I can only
21 speculate based on the fact that like 22 I know how they deal with event 23 management and control who can be in 24 the room and who shouldn't be invited,
25 and I haven't been included in things,

8 capacity in this job I would have -- I
9 would interface with State level
10 officials, and where the Executive

15 MS. PARK: What about 16 information from reporters, have any 17 reporters told you that they have 18 heard information about you that is

20 THE WITNESS: Not that I know

MS. PARK: You a few moments ago mentioned that when you first came out, the Governor did not deny what you had said, but more recently has done that. Are you referring to the Governor more recently saying he didn't do anything wrong?

THE WITNESS: Yes.

MS. PARK: And what's your reaction to Governor Cuomo saying he didn't do anything wrong?

THE WITNESS: It's not up to him to determine whether his actions were right or wrong. It's up to the individual that was subject to the actions. And if I came out and said it was wrong or inappropriate for him to touch and kiss and ask personal questions of a young female staffer without asking permission, then it's not okay and it's inappropriate.

MS. PARK: And a while ago you mentioned that in your current role supporting a county executive you were

2 aware of an allegation that members of 3 the Governor's senior staff made phone 4 calls to county executives related to 5 support for the Governor. Is your 6 knowledge of that entirely based on 7 what you've read in the press or do
8 you have any personal knowledge about 9 those phone calls?

10 THE WITNESS: No, the County
11 Executive told me. I have personal 12 knowledge.

13 MS. PARK: What did the County
14 Executive tell you?

15 THE WITNESS: He told me Larry 16 Schwartz called him and was gauging, 17 you know, his level of support for the 18 Governor and was referencing the 19 vaccine supply, and Adam was 20 acknowledging that reports in the 21 media were accurate, and that he was 22 one of the folks that was called, and 23 he alluded to like -- he thought it
24 was strange because he thought maybe 25 he was being targeted because I was

2 one of the people that spoke out and 3 I'm very publicly working for Adam
4 Bello.

5 MS. PARK: Did Mr. Bello connect
6 the two, did he connect support -- did 7 he convey to you that Mr. Schwartz was 8 connecting support for the Governor to 9 vaccine supply?

10 THE WITNESS: Yeah -- well, he 11 said that that was what it felt like 12 and that was very clear to him that 13 that was the nature of the call.

14 MS. PARK: What did you say to 15 Mr. Bello?

16 THE WITNESS: I was just like,
17 wow, I'm not surprised, that's crazy.
18 I was like I'm sorry, you know, I put 19 you on the spot. He was like, no, 20 don't apologize. He's been very 21 gracious about the whole thing.

22 I thought before I spoke out 23 publicly, before I attached my name to 24 it, that I would certainly be losing 25 my job or whatever. So before I

10 about the whole thing, and he said
11 we've got your back, you know, you do
12 what you need to do.

13 MS. PARK: Did Mr. Bello tell
14 you he was going to do anything about 15 the call from Mr. Schwartz?

16 THE WITNESS: No, he just sort 17 of -- like it was an eye-roll type of 18 a situation. Adam had had a few 19 interactions with Larry Schwartz about 20 the vaccine effort because Larry was 21 kind of running the show from the 22 stateside, and Adam was really 23 beleaguered from like -- you know, he 24 runs the county health department and 25 is being publicly held accountable for vaccine distribution in Monroe County, and yet so much of it was outside of his control and being arbitrarily determined by the Governor's Office, and, you know, he's a first-term county executive and dealing with this stuff for the first time. I mean, obviously everybody was dealing with COVID for the first time, but he already had a bad taste in his mouth about the administration, about Larry and how they were -- how they were operating the whole thing in a chaotic way, and this was just another thing, it was par for the course, politicizing -- politicizing it, politicizing vaccine distribution and politicizing the pandemic.

MS. PARK: Abena, I don't have anything else.

3 Q. Ms. Liss, you may have already 4 spoken to this so I apologize if I'm 5 repeating myself, but I want to make sure to 6 cover this.

7 At the time when you were in the 8 Executive Chamber and you had physical 9 contact with the Governor, how did you feel 10 about that?

11 A. I felt objectified and I felt 12 like I was attractive to the Governor. In 13 some ways I felt special, not like, oh, wow, 14 look at me, the Governor -- but I felt like 15 it was a differentiating factor that 16 separated me from other rank and file
17 members of the staff, like he saw me.

18 Q. Did you feel comfortable with 19 the physical contact you had with the 20 Governor?

21 A. I didn't feel threatened by it.
22 I didn't feel comfortable, but I didn't feel 23 uncomfortable -- or uncomfortable. It was 24 sort of in between.

25 MS. PARK: Was the physical

2 contact from the Governor welcome?

3 THE WITNESS: When you say
4 "welcome," like do you think -- are 5 you asking like did I invite it, did I
6 want it?

7 MS. PARK: Yes, let's take that 8 definition. Did you want it?

9 THE WITNESS: No.

10 MS. PARK: And the comments that 11 the Governor made about using terms of 12 endearment for you, "sweetheart," 13 "darling," did you want him to do
14 that?

15 THE WITNESS: No. I wanted him
16 to use my name.

17 MS. PARK: And the comments --
18 Sorry, I didn't mean to cut you 19 off. You said you wanted him to use 20 your name?

21 THE WITNESS: Uh-hum
22 (nodding).

23 MS. PARK: And the comments the 24 Governor made about your appearance, 25 did you want him to make those

2 comments?

3 THE WITNESS: No.

4 MS. PARK: I'm done.

5 BY MS. MAINOO:

6 Q. Since you last spoke to our 7 team, have you spoken to anyone about your 8 interactions with the Governor?

9 A. No.

10 Q. Have you spoken to anyone about 11 our investigation?

12 A. No, just that I am having this 13 conversation today. I had indicated that 14 that's what I'm doing on Friday night.

15 Q. Who did you indicate that to?

16 A. My husband, my parents.

17 I had been contacted a while ago
18 by the media like -- and I let them know, 19 yes, I'm speaking, yes, it's happening, but 20 I didn't divulge anything like what -- who 21 I'm talking to, et cetera, et cetera. And I 22 told my boss as well, sorry. I shared the 23 subpoena with my boss.

24 Q. What was the reason for sharing 25 the subpoena with your boss?

1 Confidential

2 A. So that he knew that on Friday
3 afternoon I would be engaged in this 4 conversation and not available.

5 Q. Is there anything you would like 6 to add or any answers you wish to clarify 7 before we finish?

8 A. No, I think I'm all set.

9 Q. Is there anything else that you 10 can think of that's relevant to our 11 investigation?

12 A. Not at this time.

13 Q. If you would like to make a 14 brief sworn statement, you may do so now.

15 A. I'm all set. I don't need to 16 say anything.

17 MS. MAINOO: We're going to 18 conclude our examination.

19 Thank you very much for speaking 20 with us today.

21 THE WITNESS: Thank you all. I
22 appreciate your time.

23 MS. MAINOO: And I'll 24 take -- before we go off the record,
25 I'll take this opportunity to remind you that you have continuing obligations under our document subpoena and our subpoena for testimony. If we need you to come back to answer additional questions, we will contact you, and if you have documents that are responsive to our document subpoena, you are still under the obligation to produce them to us.

THE WITNESS: Okay. Thank you.

MS. PARK: Ms. Liss, let me just add this too as well: As Abena told you at the beginning, under Executive Law 63(8), you may not share what -- your testimony here today with anyone. Do you understand?

THE WITNESS: Yes, I understand.

MS. PARK: Thank you.

MS. MAINOO: Thank you.

THE VIDEOGRAPHER: This ends today's deposition. The time is 7:01 and we're now off the record.
